"POSTCARDS FROM GLEN ROCK"
ARTS COUNCIL OF GLEN ROCK ANNOUNCES NEW COMMUNITY-FOCUSED ART EVENT

GLEN ROCK, N.J., June 12, 2026 – Grab a pencil, your watercolors, camera or favorite art medium, it's time for greetings from Glen Rock! The Arts Council of Glen Rock invites you to "capture" an image of Glen Rock – on a postcard. "Postcards From Glen Rock" is the newest love letter to our town from the Arts Council and residents. All ages are invited to participate.

Simply be creative and visualize a snapshot image of an aspect of our town – your school, home, favorite tree, wildlife creature, or any aspect of life in Glen Rock – on a 4-inch by 6-inch FREE postcard provided by the Arts Council. Your image can be horizontal or vertical. These complimentary blank postcards are made of watercolor paper, which can accommodate a variety of mediums – such as watercolor, pencil (graphite or color), ink or markers. Photographers can submit 4-inch by 6-inch prints.

The postcards can be obtained from June 28 to July 20 from the reference desk at Glen Rock Public Library, 315 Rock Road.

Deliver your finished postcard by July 27 to a special ACGR drop box at the Public Library or at Mail & More, 233 Rock Road. No postage stamp needed – this is art!

This Arts Council project has been created in collaboration with the Glen Rock Public Library and local businesses. Finished "Postcards From Glen Rock" will be displayed throughout August in storefront windows of downtown Glen Rock shops – Mail & More, Little Joe and John's Barber Shop, and Giannella's. For more information visit www.artscouncilgr.org.
