LOCAL ARTISTS INVITED TO PAINT "IN THE OPEN AIR"
ARTS COUNCIL OF GLEN ROCK ANNOUNCES
A NEW LOCATION for JULY'S "PLEIN AIR"

GLEN ROCK, N.J., July 8, 2026 – The next Arts Council of Glen Rock's (ACGR) once-a-month "Plein Air" painting event will be held Sunday, July 19 with a view of the Diamond Brook pond and fountain. A Glen Rock resident has invited ACGR artists to create from their back yard. Interested artists may contact acgr@glenrocknj.net for more information.

Artists gather for the monthly Plein Air Sunday Morning events at 10 a.m. and work until noon from various Glen Rock locations.

Simply bring appropriate art materials (easel, chair, oils, watercolors, pastels, pencils, drawing board), and paint or draw with other Glen Rock artists from preset vantage points/locations around the borough. "Gather with other art lovers to create, in nature, at your own pace and style," said Mona Milbrodt, president of Arts Council of Glen Rock. "This fun artistic experience is about exploration, not perfection."

- July 19 – NEW LOCATION – A view of Diamond Brook pond and fountain. Contact acgr@glenrocknj.net for location information.
- August 16 – Thielke Arboretum, 460 Doremus Avenue
- September 27 – Glen Rock Main Line Train Station/Historical Society Building, 176 Rock Road, Glen Rock (with a 1776 Revolutionary War reenactor as a live model)
- October 25 – Perry's Florist, front lawn, 660 Harristown Road, Glen Rock

Artists will be given a complimentary blank watercolor paper postcard to participate in ACGR's Postcards From Glen Rock. It's a love letter to our town. The public can obtain a postcard at the Glen Rock Public Library through the end of July. Drop boxes for finished postcards are located in the Library and Mail and More on Rock Road. ACGR will display all cards in area shops this August.

Arts Council of Glen Rock is an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Its mission is to promote, support, and celebrate all forms of the arts. The vision is to make Glen Rock a place where artists of all kinds thrive and are essential to our town's identity. All are welcome to join the organization. For more information visit www.artscouncilgr.org or email acgr@glenrocknj.net.
