ALL SAINTS' DAY

HOLY EUCHARIST RITE II
NOVEMBER 1, 2026
10:00 AM

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We, a loving and inclusive community united in Christ, both joyfully and humbly celebrate our tradition and faith through worship, fellowship, spiritual formation and prayer. With our commitment to love, justice, and peace for all peoples, we stand ever ready to share with others the bounty of God's grace to God's greater glory.

WELCOME VISITORS!

Wherever you are on your journey of faith, we are glad that you are here.

CHILDREN—We invite all ages to worship together in our sanctuary. Nursery care for young children is available downstairs on the lower level if desired—but not required.

WORSHIP—The order of worship is printed in this bulletin and comes from the Book of Common Prayer and its authorized expansions. The hymns can be found in the blue Hymnal 1982 or the green Wonder Love and Praise book; hymn numbers preceded by "S" are found in the front section of the blue Hymnal 1982.

FELLOWSHIP—Immediately following the service, you're invited to stay for a time of fellowship and refreshments in the Canterbury Room, just up the half-flight of stairs by the entrance.

RESTROOMS are located on Level 1, down the hall and to your right.

ABOUT HOLY COMMUNION:

We serve Holy Communion every Sunday in the form of leavened bread, red wine, and white grape juice (nonalcoholic). Consecrated gluten-free wafers are available upon request. All baptized Christians regardless of age, denomination, or tradition are invited to receive Communion. You are welcome to receive either the bread or wine/juice or both; receiving in either form is full Communion.

To receive the Sacrament in the bread simply hold out your open hands with one hand placed over the other. We do not permit intinction. The wine is served in both the common chalice and individual cups; let the minister know which you prefer as they come by. The white nonalcoholic juice is served only in the tray. Please place all empty cups in the second tray. If for any reason you do not want to receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing instead; simply cross your arms over your chest to indicate this.

THE LESSONS (seated)

THE FIRST READING: Revelation 7:9-17

Lector A reading from the Revelation to John.

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

> "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom > and thanksgiving and honor > and power and might > be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

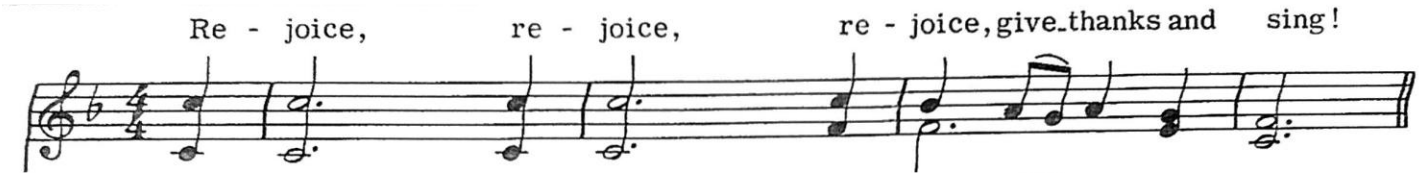

> "For this reason they are before the throne of God,
> and worship him day and night within his temple,
> and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
> They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;

the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Lector The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM: 34:1-10,22 Benedicam Dominum

Refrain: 1st Choir | 2nd All:

I will bless the Lord at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
I will glory in the Lord; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; *
let us exalt his Name together.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed. R./All

I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!
Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nothing.
The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good. R./All

The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, * and none will be punished who trust in him. R./All

THE EPISTLE: 1 John 3:1-3

Lector A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (standing)

R./All

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION
Celebrant
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Celebrant and People
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

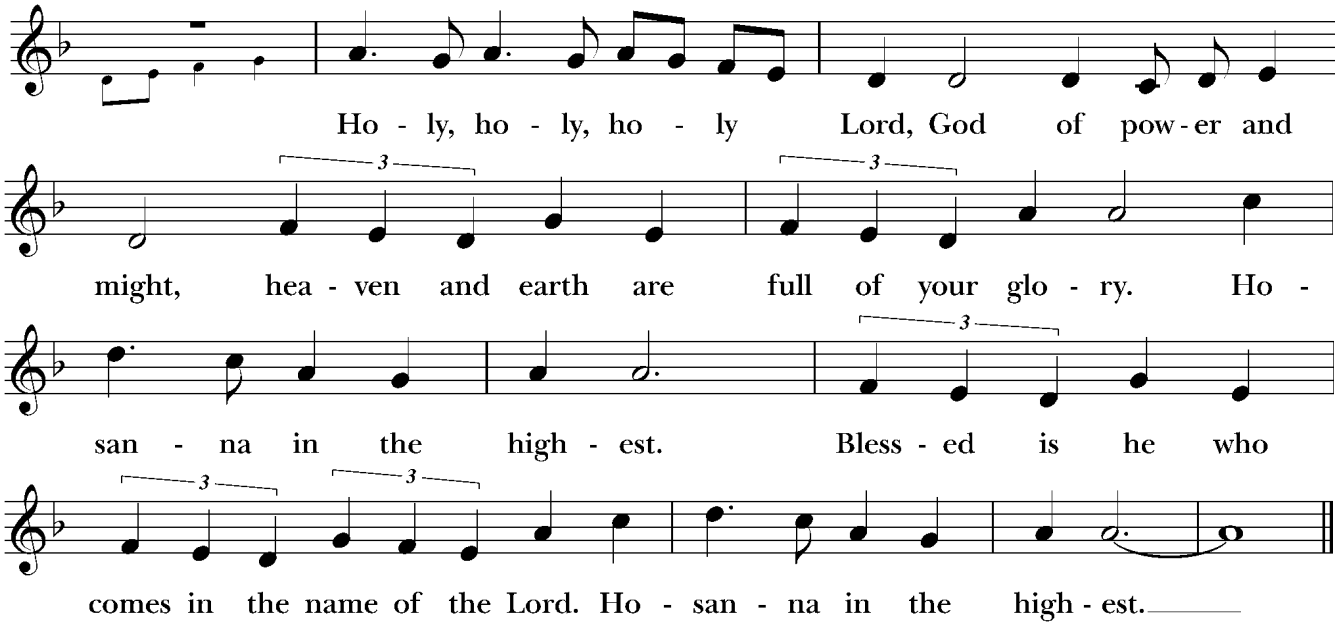

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

Celebrant and People

SANCTUS S129

(You may remain standing or kneel for the rest of the Eucharistic Prayer)

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, ✠ and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember our faithful departed....

The necrology is read. You are invited to say "here" or "present" when your loved one's name is read.

Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with blessed Andrew and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant continues
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

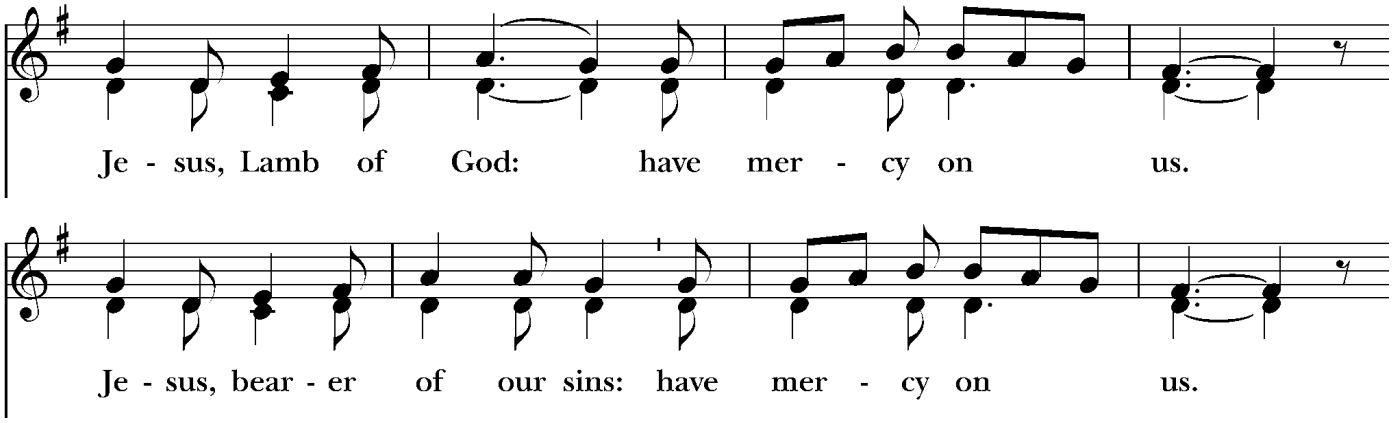

People and Celebrant

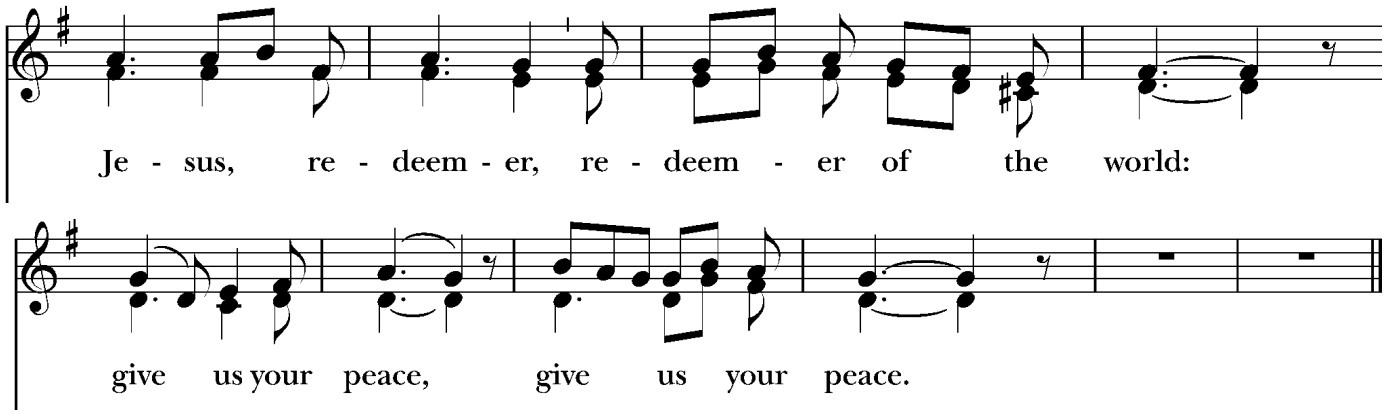

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu nombre;
venga tu reino; hágase tu voluntad
en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos
a los que nos ofenden.
No nos dejes caer en la tentación
y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino,
el poder y la gloria,
ahora y por siempre. Amén.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER (said by all)

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son and heirs of your eternal kingdom. To him, to you and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

NEWS AND UPCOMING EVENTS

Fall Cleanup Day
Saturday November 7, 10am-2pm

Do you have a little time to help spruce up the church and make things look their best? Join us for a fall cleanup day on November 7 from 10-2pm. There will be light tasks to do around the church property, both indoors and outdoors, including dusting, polishing, pruning, raking, and so on. No experience necessary! Lunch will be provided.

Fall Adult Formation: Getting to Know the Book of Common Prayer
Sundays November 15 and 22, 11:30am in the Chapel

At the heart of our Anglican way is the Book of Common Prayer. The prayer book structures our common life and serves as the central focus of unity for the whole Anglican Communion -- but what exactly is it and how do you use it? This two-part series will help demystify the Book of Common Prayer. The first session on 11/15 will examine the history of the prayer book and how the book has changed from 1549 to today. The second session on 11/22 will be a hands-on exploration of the book and its supplements, including how to pray Morning and Evening Prayer and how to follow the Sunday Eucharist in the prayer book.

Confirmation and Reception with the Bishop
Sunday December 6

Bishop Kevin Nichols is making a visitation to our parish on Sunday December 6. Anyone who wishes to be confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church is invited to do so at this service.

Confirmation is “a mature public affirmation” of one’s faith, with laying on of hands by the bishop, which permits one to take part in governance of the church. Reception is the incorporation of one’s confirmation into the Episcopal Church for those who have already been confirmed by a bishop in another tradition (such as the Roman Catholic Church). If you are interested in being confirmed or received in December, please speak to Fr Kevin. There will be a required preparation session.
