Let Salem cast on a spell on you with its rich history! Whether you are wish to follow in the footsteps of those accused of witchcraft, get nostalgic and visit Bewitched and Hocus Pocus location sites or visit the Peabody Essex Museum, this tour is designed to give you the choice to do what you want when you want. Here are some suggestions for once we arrive at the visitor center (additional fee):

Salem Trolley Tour – a great way to see Salem and to experience the Witch City’s unique and colorful past. A narrated one-hour tour through beautiful and historic Salem. Explore Salem’s witchcraft trials of 1692 or travel beyond the witchcraft hysteria into the fascinating realm of Salem's literary and maritime history. The eight-mile ride around the city takes you past the Charter Street Burial Ground, House of the Seven Gables, Witch Dungeon Museum, Salem Witch Museum, the historic waterfront area and more. www.salemrolley.com ($25) Note: Due to October crowds, trolley routing subject to change.

Peabody Essex Museum – the roots of the museum date to the 1799 founding of the East India marine Society, an organization of Salem ship captains and supercargoes. True to the spirit of its past, PEM is dedicated to creating a museum experience that celebrates art and the world in which it was made. PEM.org ($25)

Salem Witch Museum – House of Seven Gables – Witch Dungeon Museum
