STEP 1

LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

Every state has its own set of laws & regulations for what's required to become a wedding officiant. Familiarize yourself with the state's laws regarding officiants to understand what steps you need to complete to legally marry people.

- Find out about your State's Marriage Laws <https://theamm.org/weddings-by-state>
- Give yourself plenty of time before hand to complete all the steps required by your state.

Another Note: A Notary Public can be a wedding officiant in a few states,

STEP 2

GET CREDENTIALS

The first step is to become ordained. Becoming ordained is as easy as applying online through the ordination organization of your choice.

Most online ordaining services do not require you to be a member of a particular religious faith and typically the process is free.

American Marriage Ministries is a non-denominational church that ordains people online to officiate weddings & adds credibility to your certification.

STEP 3

CEREMONY CHECKLIST

Take the time to prepare for your ceremony presentation. Preparing to officiate a wedding is a big task that involves more than just writing the wedding ceremony script. My Rockstar Officiant Ceremony Guide will ensure you are fully prepared to officiate a wedding ceremony.
