

An Exhortation for Stewardship Sunday

Good morning. Thank you, Gary, for the opportunity to speak. It is indeed exciting to be a participant in “God’s mission for Prince George Winyah.”

First Chronicles 29:11 states, “Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head of all.”

To the glory of God and through the generosity of our parishioners as provided by God, I have been privileged over the last six years to witness Prince George Winyah live out its vision: “From Him – through us – to the World.” Especially this year, it seems God has proven over and over again that if we will respond to the opportunities He brings us, He will provide the resources through us to meet the call. I am firmly convinced that the blessings our Church enjoys are directly attributable to our acknowledgement of 1 Chronicles 29:11.

I also believe that in 2026 God will give us greater opportunities to reach our community, our nation, and the world for the cause of Christ. I pray as a Church and as individuals we rededicate ourselves and ask God to increase our faith, our prayerfulness and our giving so that we may respond to these opportunities in a mighty way.

Thank you, LORD, for using Prince George Winyah in Your mission to reach our community and the world with the saving message of Jesus Christ, Amen.
