First LessonJeremiah 28:5–9 (NIV)

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord. ⁶ He said, “Amen! May the Lord do so! May the Lord fulfill the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the Lord’s house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon. ⁷ Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: ⁸ From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹ But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the Lord only if his prediction comes true.”

Second Lesson:Romans 6:12–23 (NIV)

¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. ¹³ Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

¹⁵ What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶ Don’t you know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching that has now claimed your allegiance. ¹⁸ You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

¹⁹ I am using an example from everyday life because of your human limitations. Just as you used to offer yourselves as slaves to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer yourselves as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness. ²⁰ When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness. ²¹ What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death! ²² But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. ²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Reading:Matthew 10:40–42 (NIV)

⁴⁰ “Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. ⁴¹ Whoever welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward. ⁴² And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward."

Baptism of Jennings Elizabeth Allen

1. CHILDREN

† Parents or sponsors presenting a child for Baptism should be members of Christ's holy Church.

† The parents or sponsors, with the child to be baptized, shall stand before the minister, who, addressing the people, shall say,

Bro. Tim: Dearly beloved, Baptism is an outward and visible sign of the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, through which grace we become partakers of his righteousness and heirs of life eternal. Those receiving the Sacrament are thereby marked as Christian disciples, and initiated into the fellowship of Christ's holy Church. Our Lord has expressly given to little children a place among the people of God, which holy privilege must not be denied them. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, how he said, "Let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God."

† Then the minister shall address the parents saying,

Bro. Tim: Beloved, do you in presenting this child for holy Baptism confess your faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ?

Maddox & Jules: We do.

Bro. Tim: Do you therefore accept as your bounden duty and privilege to live before this child a life that becomes the gospel; to exercise all godly care that she be brought up in the Christian faith, that she be taught the Holy Scriptures, and that she learn to give reverent attendance upon the private and public worship of God?

Maddox & Jules: We do.

Bro. Tim: Will you endeavor to keep this child under the ministry and guidance of the Church until she by the power of God shall accept for herself the gift of salvation, and be confirmed as a full and responsible member of Christ's holy Church?

Maddox & Jules: We will.

† Then the minister shall take the child in his arms, and shall say to the parents,

Bro. John: What name is given this child?

Maddox & Jules: Jennings Elizabeth Allen.

† And then, repeating the name, though not including the surname, the minister shall baptize the child, saying,

Jennings Elizabeth, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

† Then the minister may have the people stand, and, addressing them, may say,

Bro. John: Brethren of the household of faith, I commend to your love and care this child, whom we this day recognize as a member of the family of God. Will you endeavor so to live that she may grow in the knowledge and love of God the Father, through our Savior Jesus Christ?

† Then the people shall say,

All: With God's help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ that this child, surrounded by steadfast love, may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal.

† Then the minister shall say,

Bro. John: Let us pray.

O God, our heavenly Father, grant that this child, as she grows in years, may also grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, and that by the restraining and renewing influence of the Holy Spirit she may ever be a true child of thine, serving thee faithfully all her days.

So guide and uphold the parents of this child that, by loving care, wise counsel, and holy example, they may lead her into that life of faith whose strength is righteousness and whose fruit is everlasting joy and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

† Then the minister may give this or another blessing:

Bro. John: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit bless, preserve, and keep you, now and forevermore. Amen.
