

Chanco Challenge

Just because we aren't having camp this summer, doesn't mean we can't still have some fun! Join us in doing the Chanco Challenge! Below is a list of 25 challenges, your quest is to complete them all. Oh yeah, and the first person to complete all 25 challenges will win a prize! To win the prize, compile all the proof into an email and send it to camp@chanco.org. We'd also love for you to send them our way as you do them so we can post them! Just interested in doing some of the challenges? That's okay too! Post your completed Challenge to Facebook or Instagram and tag us at @Chanco.on.the.James and we'll feature your challenges to our social media! Let's go out to do some good and have some fun!

This challenge is open to any and all who are willing to participate!

1. We all know you hoard everything Chanco. Who doesn't? Take a picture of yourself wearing every piece of Chanco attire you own at one time.
2. Grab a friend and clean up your street. Be sure to get a before and after shot!
3. Grab a willing friend and some silly string. YOU ARE NOW ENEMIES. GO TO WAR. YOUR SILLY STRING IS YOUR WEAPON. Once you are out of silly string, make amends, and send us a picture.
4. Find the oldest person you know. Give them a call and ask them to tell you about one of the most transformative experiences of their life before they turned 30. Summarize the story and write it up for us!
5. Learn to say something kind in sign language and record yourself signing it.
6. Dress your pet up like a superhero! Tell us their superhero name and what their powers would be. (Don't have a pet? No worries, a parent or fancy lamp will do.)
7. We could all use something sweet right now. Bake some cookies and share them with a neighbor!
8. Make a portrait of Nathan using things that are NOT art supplies. (ex: things found outside, toilet paper, food, etc.)
9. Humans are social creatures. We definitely couldn't make it in this world alone. Pick someone you couldn't live without, make a list of 10 things you love about that person and read it aloud to them.
10. Make a finger painting of your favorite Chanco memory.

11. Every now and then we all need a random act of kindness. Go buy some flowers, find a stranger, and give them the flowers and a kind word. Bonus points if you're wearing a Chanco shirt.
12. Teach someone older than you how to floss. Record the two of you flossing together for 10 seconds minimum. (The dance move, we would hope they would know how to floss their teeth. If they don't, please refer them to a dentist.)
13. Make a sign that says, "Chanco is...." And fill in the blank! Then take a picture of you holding up your sign while wearing a fake moustache.
14. Who doesn't love a free drink on a hot day? Tape a bag of change to a vending machine for the next person who wants a drink. Make sure to put a note in the bag telling them to have a good day and enjoy the drink!
15. Using supplies you can find around your home, build a Chanco sailboat for your fingers. "Chanco is cool" must be somewhere on the craft.
16. God gave humans dominion over the Earth- let's use that dominion to bring some natural beauty to our homes. Plant something! It can be outside or in a pot. Let us know what you planted!
17. Using dry erase markers, turn one of the windows in your home into a beautiful stained-glass window. That ought to make Zoom Church feel a little more Churhcy.
18. Mail carriers have been a lifesaver during this pandemic! Hand write a thank you letter to your mail-carrier.
19. Design a Chanco t-shirt! Draw it, use the interwebs, crochet it if you'd like. Just make sure to send us a picture.
20. Self-love is important! Using a dry-erase marker, go into your bathroom and write things you like about yourself or encouraging messages to yourself on your bathroom mirror, then take mirror selfie.
21. Record your family doing a camp prayer at a meal.
22. Next time someone in your household goes grocery shopping, go with them and put away all the stray carts you see in the parking lot. (Make sure to wear your mask and hardcore sanitize yourself after this!)
23. While you're out, you may as well check another challenge off your list! Write down 5 encouraging messages and leave them in the shopping carts for the next person to find.
24. Find a long sock, make that sock into a puppet resembling your favorite Chanco counselor. Have your puppet sing your favorite camp song in its best Kermit the Frog impression.

25. Make a post on Facebook or Instagram with your favorite camp picture with a caption explaining what you love most about Chanco.

EXTRA SPECIAL BONUS ITEM WE WOULD LOVE FOR YOU TO DO: Record yourself (with or without other people) singing the Chanco song! This will not be posted, but instead will be used for another project we're working on.
