On the following page, the password to enter the “Family Forum” is: NJCTS

Here are the detailed instructions on how to set up your account and maneuver the forum:

This is the link to the forum: <https://familyforum.njcts.org/>

When you click the link, you will be prompted with a password request. The password is going to be '1in100'. Once you have entered the password, a screen will appear prompting you to sign in. You are going to click “Sign Up” and create a username (which is how you will be recognized on the site), and password. They also require you to enter a valid email address. You will receive an email with a link you need to click to secure your account.

Once you are officially in the forum, you will see two categories on the screen: “Family Forum” and “Young Adult Forum” Click on “Family Forum” where you will be prompted with a second password request. This password is 'NJCTS' all in caps. You will only have to input this password once.

You will now be shown all the separate topics. Click on a topic to read the full post. This is where you are able to reply to the posts and/or reply to other’s comments.

If you would like to ask your own question or make your own comment you will have to go back to the Topic’s page and click “New Topic” in the top right corner. You are required to create a title and description. By creating a new topic, you open up the possibility of others responding to your question or comment.

If someone responds to a comment you had made, you should receive an email letting you know.
