

Coda Parts Global Program

EMPOWERING CODAS AROUND THE WORLD

Take this psychological, spiritual, and creative journey that will guide you to explore your Coda Parts and develop your roadmap to success!

Why Attend?

- ✓ To understand your deaf part and hearing part and how it impacts your life
- ✓ To strengthen and deepen your use and understanding of Coda Parts
- ✓ To heal your inner Coda child with a therapist who specializes in Coda issues
- ✓ To soothe yourself if you feel stuck, anxious, depressed, lonely, numb, irritable, stressed, unable to make decisions, easily swayed, unable to find your 'center', or feeling caught in the middle of everything
- ✓ Coda Parts model will assist you with challenges that need 'fresh eyes' to clarify your strategy for success - in your relationships, in your career and school decisions, in negotiating with your deaf, hearing, and Coda family members or as a Coda interpreter with challenging assignments and/or internal conflicts.

Program Description

You will be guided with a Coda Parts roadmap to discover and celebrate the Deaf, Hearing, and Coda Parts of your identity. Together with other Codas you will be guided to explore your 3 Parts (Coda, Deaf, Hearing) as well as the key 'Coda Parts Manager' that oversees the success of all three Parts.

CONFERENCE LEADERS

As a licensed Marriage Family Therapist for 25 years, Sheila Jacobs has been developing 'Parts Work' with her clients whether they are Codas, hearing, or deaf. The goal is to have 'our Parts' work together so that we find more wholeness and happiness with all our Parts on our Coda Journey, and feel that we have a successful Tool Kit to accomplish all our life dreams.

Stephanie Rey is a Coda from France born and raised within a deaf family and a deaf community in Toulouse. Stephanie lead engineering teams on global projects while working with Unilever around the world for 15 years. Now she is reinvesting her global business expertise in helping the deaf and their families. By elevating the deaf cause,

Stephanie hopes to create a holistic and long lasting world-wide inclusion program.

Sheila Jacobs offers
