

Meet Our Team Member

Amanda Wells

Amanda Wells joined the JMAFCU team in November 2017 with 11 years of financial institution experience. Amanda brings with her a wealth of financial knowledge and expertise, especially in lending. She enjoys conversing with credit union members to discover ways that she can help them reach their financial goals. Amanda has taken to heart Jim Moran's quote that "the future belongs to those that prepare for it" and shows up prepared to make a difference in the lives of our members.

A free spirit, Amanda loves a good laugh and always has a smile on her face. She is from Theodore, AL, and loves Alabama football, a good bonfire and cozying up on the couch with a nice big cup of coffee. She is married to a wonderful husband, John, and together they have three beautiful children. When in Mobile, stop by and have a good laugh with her. You'll be glad you did.
