

2018 FOUNDERS' CLUB INDUCTEES

BARBARA CHANDLER

Barbara Chandler joined the staff at Trinity Pines in July of 2015. Barb has worked primarily in the area of Food Service and has filled in as the relief cook. Barbara and her husband, a retired forest service employee, live in Donnelly. Barbara will transition on January 1 to a new position, working as a member of the Housekeeping Team. Barbara is a wife, mother, grandmother and a faithful servant for the Kingdom. Her sweet, warm spirit has been a delight for many visitors at Trinity Pines. She was originally encouraged by her daughter-in-law, who said, "You should just stop in and see if they need any help and offer to volunteer." The rest of the story is history. Barb has spent many hours as a staff member at the camp.

ALEX DRINNON

Alex Drinnon started his camping experience at Victory Cove at a Valley Shepherd Family Camp and later at Valley Shepherd Caravan Retreat. Alex is a product of our summer camps. He attended camps from Genesis Camp through Sr. High Camp. Along the way, he was a CIT for other campers and often assisted his parents as directors of Genesis Camp. After he enrolled in NNU with a major in Computer Science, he signed up to be part of the summer college staff. This new chapter in his camping experience lasted for a total of six years. Even now, while he is not officially on staff, you often see Alex at Work Week, helping with the challenge course and just popping in at Trinity Pines to see how things are going. Investing in Trinity Pines has been part of Alex's life for several years. Alex plans to graduate from NNU in the spring of 2019.

BEV MARTIN

Bev Martin and her husband Terry, contracted with the Intermountain District and Camps Board to handle financial records, check writing and invoice reconciliation for camp operations. Bev is a retired church secretary, serving at Tree City Church of the Nazarene (formerly Boise First) for a total of 36 years. She knew that life well-being raised as a Pastor's Kid herself with her father having served for a number of years as pastor of Boise First. Bev is always willing to change her schedule to stop in at AMG and write checks for last minute requests and take care of items that need financial attention. Bev and Terry have been partners in ministry for many years. When Terry offered his accounting services to Trinity Pines in the bookkeeping area, it was understood that Bev came as part of the package. Terry and Bev have two grown children and four grandchildren who are located in Africa with their daughter, Michelle, and her husband, George.

GRADY AND JESSICA HARMON

Grady and Jessica Harmon grew up attending Intermountain District camps. They graduated from Northwest Nazarene University. It was while attending school that Grady learned of a summer employment opportunity at Trinity Pines. Grady served as the Program Staff Coordinator at camp for two summers. Grady and Jessica (Ryan) were married in 2014. Grady and Jessica first directed the Intermountain District Kids' Camp and have directed the District Boy's Camp for the past four years. Currently, Grady serves as Associate Pastor at Boise New Hope Church of the Nazarene. The Harmons have two young children who are being exposed to the camp each year through their parents' role as camp directors.

SCOTT AND VICKI SHAW

Scott and Vicki Shaw became District Superintendent of the Intermountain District in May of 2015. The Shaws came from the Washington Pacific District and assumed the role of leadership for a district with a strong legacy of Christian camping. Scott and Vicki jumped in with both feet and have made it a regular habit of attending each and every district summer camp when their schedule permits. Scott serves on the Camps Board and the Camp Property/Development Committee. Vicki is a member of the District Women's Retreat Planning Committee. In 2016, Scott proposed relocating the District Camp Meeting to Trinity Pines. The weekend has become known as Camp Meeting at the Campground. Scott has provided excellent leadership to the camping program, he insists on frequent reporting about the camp program to members of the District Advisory Board, and he has been a strong advocate for Trinity Pines since the day he arrived on the District.
