

Township encourages a season of giving

Bloomfield Township has paved the way for a season of giving to assist needy residents in our area. You can help! From Dec. 4 to Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 15, 2018, donate to local food pantries, Bloomfield Public Library and the Bloomfield Animal Shelter. Here are specific ways to participate:

- Bring donations to the Bloomfield Tree Lighting (Dec. 4) and Children's Holiday Program (Dec. 9). Details in this edition of E-Buzz.

- Donate food and new baby items at Town Hall, fire stations, the Civic Center, or the library – Dec. 6 to Jan. 13.

- Participate in the food drive (including baby food) at these locations:
Jack's Food Town – Dec. 16 • ShopRite – Jan. 7

- Buy items from Bloomfield Public Library's Amazon wish list:
<http://www.bplnj.org/support>.

- Buy items from the Bloomfield Animal Shelter wish list:
<http://bloomfieldshelter.com/supportus.html>.

- Participate in the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. day of service at Demarest Elementary School on Jan. 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

- Attend the MLK celebration on Jan. 15 at New Light Baptist Church in Bloomfield at 4 p.m. Donations of food and baby items will be accepted there.

For more information go to <http://dayofservice.nationbuilder.com/> or e-mail BloomfieldMLKday@gmail.com.