

The 2018 Summer of Fun will kick off the summer season with the Township of Bloomfield's Annual Memorial Day Parade on Monday, May 28th. The Bloomfield Joint Memorial Committee has been working diligently on creating a fun filled event for the entire family. The parade will step off at 9:30am on the corner of Broad Street and Warren Street and will march north on Broad street to the reviewing stand on the Town Green in front of the Civic Center. The parade will include:

- Past and present veterans, community organizations, sports teams, classic cars and many more!
- Military, Police, Fire, EMS and township vehicles
- Marching Bands
- Rides can be arranged for Veterans who are unable to march

Anyone with a classic car is encouraged to participate and asked to email Recreation Director, Michael Sceurman with their the year, make and model of their car along with the owner's name. Please send emails to msceurman@bloomfieldtwpnj.com at put the "Memorial Day" as the subject matter.
