

Check out September's Library movies

Every Monday and Thursday, Bloomfield Public Library screens films in widely varying genres, including many recent hits, all starting at 12:15 in the library theater.

- Thursday, Sept. 1 – “It Came from Beneath the Sea,” 1955 sci-fi thriller.
- Thursday, Sept. 8 – “The Finest Hours,” 2016 action film.
- Monday, Sept. 12 – “Voices from Inside the Towers,” 2011 TV movie.
- Thursday, Sept. 15 – “Jane Got a Gun,” 2016 western.
- Monday, Sept. 19 – “Elvis & Nixon,” 2016 comic-leaning untold true story.
- Thursday, Sept. 22 – “Sisters,” 2015 comedy.
- Monday, Sept. 26 – “Gun Crazy,” 1950 b&w crime drama.
- Thursday, Sept. 29 – “Youth,” 2015 drama.

Up-and-coming jazz musician

to appear at the library

Catch saxophonist, flautist and singer Cecilia Tenconi in a free concert at the Bloomfield Public Library Theater on Sept. 24 at 2 p.m. Tenconi's debut CD, “Amazon Lily,” (cover shown here), earned rave critical revues for its display of multiple talents, expressive performance and outstanding original compositions. Tenconi is an up-and-comer.

She performed as a solo flautist with the Orchestra of the National Radio in Argentina at age 16, and since, has performed with the likes of Manhattan Transfer, Herbie Mann, Ray Baretto, Chico O'Farrell, and Tania Maria.

Calendar

- The library will be closed on Labor Day.
- Saturday hours resume starting Sept. 10, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Continuing Programs

- Bridge Club – Fridays at noon.
- Computer Tutoring - Valid Bloomfield Library card required.
By appointment only.
- Writer's Circle – Every other Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Children's Programs

Fall Story Times begin Sept. 7, all starting at 11 a.m. Admission is free and no registration is required. Sessions include stories and songs plus arts and crafts taught by a certified art teacher.

- Tuesdays and Fridays - Toddlers with craft (1-1/2 to 3 years).
- Wednesdays - Preschool with craft (3-5 years).
- Thursdays - Baby & Me (up to 18 months). No craft.