

Oakeside Bloomfield Cultural Center

presents

A Victorian Tea

Featuring music by

Gerard & Diane Barros

Sunday, December 9, 2018 at 1pm

Enjoy finger sandwiches, tea cakes and cookies beautifully presented in our period living room followed by a tour of our historic home. After tea, Gerard and Diane Barros will present a concert of Christmas favorites in the solarium. This promises to be a most enjoyable afternoon.

Cost is $32 per person and includes the tea and the concert. Places are limited; reservations are required. Please call the Oakeside office at 973-429-0960 for further information and to reserve your place.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey Historical Commission/Department of State and administered by the Essex County Division of Cultural and Historical Affairs.

