From The Rabbi

This year's timing of Cheshvan in late October and November is perfect. The Jewish month of Cheshvan is also referred to as "Mar Cheshvan," or "bitter Cheshvan," because it is the one month in our calendar that has no holidays. However, this year, Cheshvan overlaps with the secular time of preparing for Thanksgiving in the United States. We have the opportunity to focus on the primary message of Thanksgiving: Gratitude.

Gratitude is found throughout Jewish sources. We have biblical stories of characters expressing their gratitude to God, like when Leah gives birth to Yehudah, whose name contains the root ,נ-ת-ל-which means "to thank." We are commanded to offer sacrifices in thankfulness, and our book of Psalms contain many songs of gratitude (Hodo l'hashem ki tov, Give thanks, for God is good).

As it seems our natural inclination as humans is to focus on our problems and deficiencies, gratitude is a practice that we must engage in with intention. Prayer is one way to infuse gratitude into our lives. We start our morning with a prayer, "Modeh Ani l'fanecha," a simple line of thankfulness that we are waking up to a new day. There are many other prayers and Psalms of gratitude in our services, and blessings we can recite throughout the day. Others keep a gratitude journal where they record the highlights of their day, as a reminder to see the good in life among the other challenges that a day can bring.

I hope that your month offers many opportunities for you to find gratitude and to appreciate the many blessings in our lives. I am grateful to each of you for being who you are, and for your dedication to our sacred community. I hope you enjoy this poem about gratitude by Rabbi Rami Shapiro.

Minyan by Rabbi Rami Shapiro

*Spirituality is living with attention.
Living with attention leads me to thanksgiving.
Thanksgiving is the response I have
To the great debt I accrue with each breath I take.
Attending to the everyday miracles of ordinary living
I am aware of the interconnectedness of all things.
I cannot be without you.
This cannot be without that.
All cannot be without each.
And each cannot be without every.
Thanksgiving is not for anything,
It is from everything.
May I cultivate the attention to allow the thanks that is life
to inform the dance that is living.*

Rabbi Sara Rich

Lisa Bloch Rodwin, Marcia Saran, Melina Saran, Ina Scheer, Phyllis Scheff, Dana Serue, Tracy Sherman, Leona Spindler, Esther Trachtman, Sheila Trossman, Helen Weinstein, Myra Werbow, Lynne Williams, and Rusty Zackheim have in common?

They have all made or pledged to make donations to Torah Fund's Kol Yisrael Averim Ze ba'Zeh General Campaign! Thank you to each and everyone. Those donating $180 and more receive a gift of a silver pin crafted and made in Israel, bearing the word Averim. Add your name to the list!

Torah Fund is the dedicated tzedakah of Women's League for Conservative Judaism. The dollars donated to this campaign help to provide scholarship funds and programming to the students at the five intuitions of higher learning, The Jewish Theological Seminary in New York, Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies in Los Angeles, Schechter Institutes of Jewish Studies in Jerusalem, Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano in Buenos Aires, and Zacharias Frankel College in Potsdam. Help strengthen Jewish education and ensure the vibrancy of the Jewish people for decades to come, with your gift to Torah Fund.

Every year the Torah Fund Cabinet picks a theme for the next year so it was over a year ago that this year's theme was chosen: Kol Yisrael Averim Ze ba'Zeh, All Israel is responsible for one another. This theme was chosen before Hamas attacked Israel and destroyed our peace of mind. More than ever, we need to educate our future rabbis, cantors, educators and scholars. Donations, large and small, are welcome.

Contact Linda Steinhorn or Linda Boxer if you have questions.

Returnable bottles and cans, oh my!

Did you know that we have a Temple Beth Tzedek account at Millersport Recycling Bottle and Can Redemption Center? Those nickels add up to help with funding our youth programming. After our recent drive-up event, we collected over 1000 bottles and cans to return.

The Millersport Recycling building is on Millersport Road, corner of North Westfield, in the Grover Cleveland Plaza, one building down from Natalie's Restaurant.

Millersport Recycling accepts all bottles and cans, not just certain brand name bottles and cans. No need to run from store to store to make your returns. Millersport Recycling gives not for profits an extra 1% to the dollar amount from bottles and cans that are turned in.

If you return your own bottles and cans to Millersport Recycling, ask that they credit the Temple Beth Tzedek account. Need a pick up? Contact Steve Lippa.

VIDEO YAHRZEIT BOARD

As many of you know we have a video yahrzeit board that displays the virtual plaques the week of the yahrzeit. If you would like to purchase a physical memorial tablet to be placed on the wall in the courtyard (along with the virtual plaque on our video board) the cost is $600. What you may not know is that you have the capability of adding a short biography about your loved one and a picture. This can be accessed through the search function on the board or through the link on our website and weekly announcements email. It also will be displayed automatically the week of the yahrzeit, along with the virtual plaque. The cost for the biography and picture is $180. For more information on ordering or information on how to see a sample of this, please contact Kim Jones in the synagogue office at 716-838-3232.

From the President

Everything is taking longer these days. It's not because there is less sunlight each day. It's not because the weather grows cooler. It is because every phone call, email, text, class, meeting, trip to the grocery store requires that we first check in with one another. Who do you know in Israel? Are you okay? Are you remembering to turn off the news and take time for yourself? We all feel the pain of what has transpired. We all hope that the hostages will be returned safely. We all agree that Israel would never bomb a hospital even when others said they did. We need to talk with one another; be with one another.

Join us for services. Rabbi Rich has added prayers for Israel and prayers for peace. We've prayed for the IDF and for the captives. When we are together, we are stronger. Come to Shabbat services. Come to daily minyan. Come to the Healing Service on Wednesdays after evening minyan. We don't have to be alone in our worry and our grief. Together we can share the pain.

Are you worried about safety? It is always a concern. The Amherst Police Department, The Erie County Sheriff's Office, the New York State Police are aware of our fears and have all provided extra patrols. We've had police cars driving by more frequently and even sitting in our parking lot when we are open. On Shabbat we have our guards. We are keeping doors locked as much as possible. While there is never a guarantee that nothing will happen, we strive to follow the guidelines of the Secure Community Network. Remember this: If we close our doors, they win. We should not allow their hatred to keep us from celebrating our Judaism.

Rabbi Rich and I have been compiling a list of our congregants who have loved ones in Israel. She will begin, and hopes to find helpers, to make calls to check in. Can you help make a call or two each week? We are looking to bring in our partners from JFS to help us learn how to go about this task in the best possible way. Let me know if you are willing to help.

In the same vein, we have a very long Bikur Cholim list. Our Kesher Committee and Rabbi Rich are working together to be sure our congregants are called regularly. Would you be willing to help make some of those calls? The only requirements are a telephone and a willing ear.

As our partnership with Jewish Family Services (JFS) continues, Jamie Goodwin will be our on-site person. She and Matt Stewart can help with life's issues like completing insurance applications, finding competent aides, counseling to help us cope. It's all confidential so we don't know who has been helped, but we do know this partnership has become a vital part of our community.

It's not too late to donate to the High Holiday Appeal. It's not too late to buy an Israeli Bond to support that appeal. Contact the office if you wish to contribute.

Our doors are open. Our services and activities continue. Look at the pages of this issue of the Shofar. Check the website. Take a Shabbat flyer each week. Sign up for programs and classes. Let's be together.

Am Yisrael Chai.

From the Men's Club

Brothers and Sisters:

The horrifying news to which we awoke on October 7, when we learned of the unprovoked terrorist attacks on Israel, is still reverberating around the world. More than 1,400 Israelis slaughtered, more than 200 people kidnapped. Babies killed, soldiers beheaded, women violated. Innocent lives taken in unspeakable acts of brutality. A horrific loss for Jews not seen since the Holocaust. And while most people around the world have reacted in outrage and solidarity with us, there are still those who would condone, defend, or even encourage such atrocities. They must not be tolerated.

But we must also take care of ourselves. We are all in mourning, and we are all experiencing sadness, anger, fear and a host of other emotions. There is a natural reaction to recoil, to pull back, even to hide and conceal our Jewish identity at a time like this. But that is exactly the opposite of what we must do.

Instead, we must stand tall and stand proud, asserting who we are, and not allowing ourselves to be deterred or intimidated. We must speak out and defend each other. We must unite. We must demand action. We must support each other. And we must be together.

This is a time when it is so important to come to shul and to gather for events, in defiance of those who would want to weaken us. It is a time to wear our Jewish identity with pride, and to be strong in our solidarity with Israel and with one another.

Your Temple Beth Tzedek Men's Club is here to support you, to be with you, and to bring us all together. We had a wonderful gathering before the attacks, when we enjoyed our annual Steak & Scotch in the Sukkah on October 2. And then we met up with our brethren from Rochester and Pittsburgh for a BBQ at Presque Isle State Park in Erie, PA on October 22.

This month, we'll be hosting a special Veterans Day Sunday brunch program on November 12 with a guest speaker, Rabbi Sean Gorman. He will be talking about his experiences as a military chaplain in the U.S. Navy. Rabbi Gorman is currently the executive director of the Canadian Foundation for Masorti Judaism and MERCAZ-Canada. Rabbi Gorman is also a close friend of our member Scott Herman, so our thanks go to Scott for organizing this event. We'll be joining Sunday morning minyan 8:30 AM, followed by our brunch program at 9:30 AM. Please join us.

And keep an eye out for other events and opportunities coming up. The Men's Club is here for you. We hope you'll be a part of our efforts. Membership is only $30 for the year. Please contact me for more information.

See you in shul.

Proudly Jewish,
Jonathan Epstein

Mah Koreh B'CRS? (What's Happening at CRS)

From Einav Symons

The Community Religious School is a bustling location every Sunday morning! With a later start to the school year due to the Holidays, the staff and students have already solidified a great routine! In October, CRS celebrated Simchat Torah at Temple Beth Tzedek. The grades six and seven students have been studying with Rabbi Rich and exploring issues surrounding disagreements and debates, as well as exploring ethical issues in a session called "Is it OK to eat meat?". Rabbi Gutmann will be teaching in November classes on Cyber bullying and lead a session called "Unplug or Plug In?". In October, students and parents in grades K-2 participated in family programming and in November, the 5th and 3rd grade students will explore our theme for the year M'dor L'dor together with their family. Our first CRS Friday night service took place at Congregation Shir Shalom.

How wonderful it was to welcome the Shabbat together! On November 12th, CRS students and parents will have an opportunity to visit the Cofeld Judaic Museum at Temple Beth Zion. Cathy Shuman Miller will lead art sessions for our students in November. This has always been an exciting opportunity for engagement and learning through art. Our youngest students are inspiring in their enthusiasm as they participate with their parents in our Ganainu program for pre-K children with Ashirah Lazarus-Klein.

I would like to thank our staff, madrichim and the education committee for all their support and commitment. A special thank you to CRS Parent Council and Todd Sugarman, CSS President, for bringing into fruition our official CRS fully stocked Kosher kitchen! Just like food and cooking are inseparable from Jewish life, now they will be inseparable from our Jewish learning.

CRS is an inclusive pluralistic Community Religious School that inspires Jewish identity, literacy, and values. Our Rabbis, educators and role models foster an environment where leadership, lifelong friendships and family connections thrive. The Community Religious School serves the students of Temple Beth Tzedek, Temple Beth Zion, Congregation Shir Shalom and unaffiliated families. One community, one community school. CRS provides engaging curriculum which includes Holidays, Israel, Torah, Ethics/Values, Life cycle, History, Food/Cooking, Art and Music. The Hebrew curriculum is taught as private, remote lessons to students from 1st through 7th grade. Hebrew is reinforced during in-class T'fillah time on Sundays. Family programs are scheduled for each grade to follow this year's theme of M'dor L'dor.

For more information on our academic program for students Pre-K through 7th, our Madrichim program for 8th-12th graders, or to become a supporter, please contact Einav Symons, the CRS Director at (716)574-6016.
