

Rabbi Isaac Klein Scholar-In-Residence Weekend

JUNE 26 - 28, 2026

“What makes the Jewish people a ‘people’? How do we relate to others in community? This weekend, we’ll explore these questions via roads not typically taken, beginning with this week’s parashah (Balak) and moving through the laws of tzedakah (charity), which embody an approach to Jewish peoplehood and a social ethic.”

Join us for thought provoking conversations with Dr. Alyssa Gray, J.D., Ph.D. Professor of Codes and Response Literature and the Mehlman Chair of Rabbinics at Hebrew Union College.
