1. Introduction

This release completes the flight plan filing page in NextGen Flight Planning application with the addition of a new feature allowing a user to Save a Draft of the filing page and return later, some improved Notifications functionality and many of the remaining filing functionality from the legacy flight planning tool.

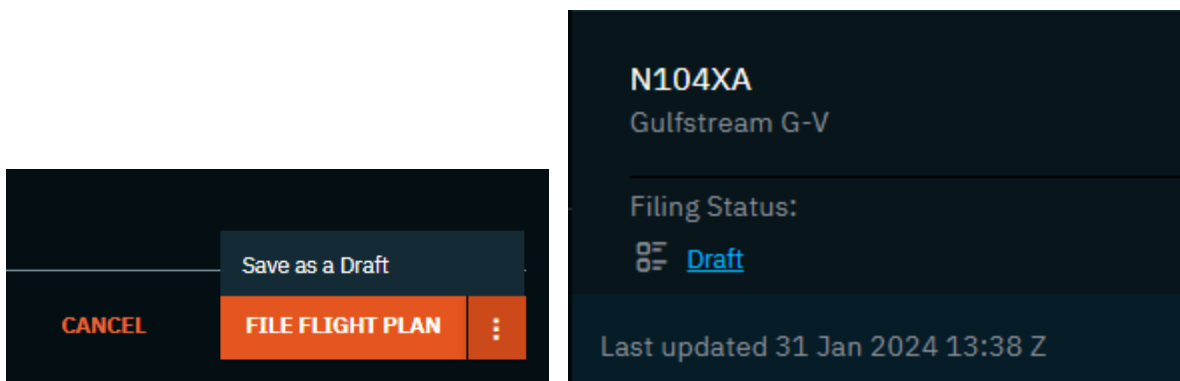

2. Remarks

Users can enter ICAO item 18 remarks before submitting a flight plan to ATC.

3. Saving a Filing as a Draft

This new feature included in NextGen Flight Planning only allows a user to Save a Draft of the flight plan filing and return later to continue submitting the filing to ATC. Common use case may be to populate the Remarks field with a Permit Number when obtained and returning later to file the flight plan with ATC nearer to the ETD.

4. Notifications

In the first Filing release, PIC notification of the filing confirmation was included and required by default. In this release, the rest of the notifications' functionality is available including the other notification types:

- EDCT/CTOT Notifications
- PDC Notifications
- Hazard Alerting Notifications

As well as the ability to add or remove additional recipients of notifications. The method of notification provided is via email address.
