Introduction

Quick Flight Brief is the most recent feature delivered in the NextGen Flight Planning system. Quick Brief is the first in a series of deliverables that will culminate with a fully customizable Briefing tool. Quick Brief is currently designed to compile a briefing package based on your briefing and package preferences from the legacy ARINCDirect website. As we continue to develop the full Flight Brief capabilities, we will be introducing options for configuration and customization of the briefing in the NextGen environment.

Briefing Page

Displayed below and accessible via the Navigation Rail in the app, is a new page called Brief. This page allows you to view existing and create new Flight Briefs.

At the top left of the Brief page there is a search bar that allows users to filter existing briefs by package name or tail number.

| PACKAGE NAME | INCLUDED FLIGHT PLANS | STATUS | TIME | TO ADDRESS | ACTIONS |
|----------------------|-------------------------|---------|--------------------------------|--|---------|
| Package #17 10/03/24 | B0396 90015 KLAS → KORD | PENDING | Will Send at 10/04/2024 1405 Z | ca1@anywhere.com rajeshkannan.janakiraman@collins.com usar0@anywhere.com | |

Create Quick Brief

Clicking on the Create Quick Brief button at the top right of the Brief page opens the form to create a Flight Brief.

On the left-hand side, the available flight plans can be filtered by Tail Number or Status: All or Filed. To select a flight plan for inclusion, click on the orange box to the left of the recall number. A running list of included flight plans will display in blue.

On the right-hand side, a Package Name will populate by default but can be overridden. As for the package recipients, emails of the user who created the brief and the PIC or SIC of any of the included filed flight plans will pre-populate. These addresses can be removed by clicking the “x” on the blue chip that displays the address. Additional-recipients can also be added if desired by either typing in the address or selecting from available users in your account. If no email is defined, the package will generate a PDF and be available to view on the NextGen Brief page, the legacy Pkg Status page, and iPad app. Faxes are not supported in this release but will be available in a future enhancement.

The Send Package Time has three options: Immediately, at a specified date/time (in Zulu) or at a specific time ahead of the earliest selected flight plan ETD.

Finally, to configure and send the Flight Brief, click on Send Package at the bottom right of the page.

Brief Status on the Leg List

There are additional ways to see the status of a flight brief. When on the Leg List page, to the right of the Filing Status, there is a Brief Status. This will show the status of any Flight Brief that has been created for the leg.
