

News from the Library: September 9, 2021
A Teen's View of 9/11

For the teens of 2001, no domestic moment has affected their lives more than the events of September 11. Now, two decades after, 9/11 still influences the lives of our young adults in significant ways. Here are a few perspectives from the eyes of teens that will tug at your heart in more ways than one:

911: The Book of Help by Various Young Adults

Ask No Questions by Marina Budhos

Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer

Ground Zero: A Novel of 9/11 by Alan Gatz

The Memory of Things by Gae Polisner

Nine, Ten: A September 11 Story by Nora Raleigh Baskin

The Usual Rules by Joyce Maybard