

<!-- ATTN RISING SENIORS! -->

INTERESTED IN A TECHNICAL CAREER PATH?

</ DESIGN IT >

</ BUILD IT >

In collaboration with University of Virginia,
Blue Ridge Community College is offering three

FREE COLLEGE COURSES!

Learn using design and technology, create a project
you can take home. Classes transfer into these two-year programs at Blue Ridge Community College:

Computer & Electronics Technology or
Advanced Manufacturing Technology

POSSIBLE CAREER PATHS:

- Electronics technician
- Industrial technician
- Clinical engineer technician
- Instrumentation technician
- Communications technician
- Computer network technician
- Industrial engineer
- Aviation or Automotive technician
- Welder or Machinist

SCHEDULE (ONE CLASS PER SEMESTER):

- Summer: Electronic Applications I – (2 credit, 2 weeks)
- Fall: Software Design – (3 credit, 1 day/week)
- Spring: Mechanisms I – (3 credit, 1 day/week)

Current high school students, especially rising seniors and females are encouraged to apply!

Ready to apply?

Contact your High School Career Coach or call (540) 453-2582 or (540) 453-2215

