

Cave Creek Rodeo Queens 2025

Saturday, January 25th, Cave Creek Rodeo Queens were selected at the Holland Center. The competition was intense with eight young ladies vying for Queen, Sr Queen, and Jr Queen. It was a tough competition with the winners as follows:

Queen Julie Bloomfield
Sr. Queen Madisyn Desautelle
Jr. Queen Kinsley Clifton

Cave Creek Rodeo Days Queen Bio – Julie Bloomfield

Julie Bloomfield is a 23-year-old bilingual honors student at Brigham Young University, pursuing a remote business marketing degree while aspiring to become a rodeo queen. Raised in a family of eight children, her early life was steeped in Arizona's agricultural heritage, her grandfather managed a 40,000 cattle ranch near the Superstition Mountains. Her fondness for the Western lifestyle was shaped by this experience, along with her deep appreciation for family, ranch work, and the tradition of rodeo. Julie aspires to be a role model for future generations by upholding her family's legacy and embodying the spirit of the Cave creek community with elegance and dignity. She has long dreamt of holding a queen title, a desire instilled by her grandfather's legacy and her family's deep – seated connection to Arizona's rich agriculture; and rodeo heritage.

Sr. Queen Bio – Madisyn Desautelle

Madison Desautelle, a 15-year-old freshman at Cactus Shadows High School, was a participant in the inaugural princess program at Cave Creek Rodeo Days. She has had numerous opportunities to demonstrate her passion for rodeo and community spirit to her local community. Madisyn aspires to inspire other young women to pursue their dreams while continuing to cultivate community spirit and share her enthusiasm for rodeo. After four years on the junior rodeo circuit, Madisyn has an impressive record. She has placed in the Top 10 for All Around buckle winner, pole bending, and barrel racing with the Queen Creek Junior Rodeo Association. Additionally, she has been the Buckle and Saddle winner for two years at Western Saddle Club. She aims to become a professional barrel racer in the WPRA and manage or own a local ranch to assist others in improving their riding and training horses.

Jr Queen Bio – Kinsley Clifton

Kinsley Clifton, a 14-year-old Cave Creek native and freshman at Cactus Shadows High School. Not new to the Cave Creek Rodeo Days community, she participated in the youth princess program in 2018. Kinsley's love for horses and competition started at an early age when she practiced running barrels in her arena using cans. Kinsley is currently competing in the Queen Creek Junior Rodeo Association, her favorite everts are breakaway roping, pole bending and barrel racing. She desires to be a junior rodeo queen with Cave Creek Rodeo Days because she wants to highlight the hard work and dedication involved in rodeo, as well as her love for her hometown. A long-term aspiration of Kinsley's is to have a future career in horsemanship.
