

We welcome Nancy Meyer to our Grace family!

Nancy is native to Washington, DC and recently moved to Rock Hill from Ohio. She has 3 sons and 7 grandchildren.

Nancy is a retired nurse who loves to garden, travel, and sew in her free time— or, when she isn't spending time with her granddaughters here in Rock Hill. Maddie Hanford, her oldest granddaughter, has visited Grace, too.

Although she grew up Presbyterian, Nancy has been a Lutheran for most of her life. Before moving to Rock Hill, she did lots of research to find a church home. She was attracted to Grace because of the people, mission, and website. Nancy said that she's a fan of Pastor Gregg and Pastor Rachel's sermons, and she loved the friendly welcome from Annie Laurie and Kathy Schwandt, among others. She was "sold" on the first visit, and quickly got involved.

Nancy is a member of the parish choir, hand bells, and altar guild. She also volunteers in the community as a member of the York County Choral Society and the PEO women's education organization.
