

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES FOR ADULTS—FALL 2022

The Women's Bible Study Class meets on Sunday morning between services in room 106, during the school year. This group of women have been using the GATHER magazine bible study to guide their adventures into God's Word. This magazine is produced under the ELCA and the writers of the magazine include various ELCA Pastors and other contributors who are connected to the ELCA. The current bible study is "Crafted in Christ". This study was released this past summer, but we are going to use it to start our fall study. Women of all ages are welcome to this class. Please feel free to join us when we start back up on Sept 18th or anytime you would like to drop in.

Women's Bible Study - led by Ruth Wasserman

Adult Bible Study - led by Bob Wasserman

From Bob: I am excited to be your leader in the Adult's Bible Study. Our bible study is part of the KERYGMA program.

The book that we are studying is Good News for All: The Gospel of Luke. We are set to begin the 6th session "Ministry in Galilee: Teaching".

Luke's Gospel speaks to all people. The good news is for the outcast and the establishment, for the faithful and those who are searching. Luke writes to deepen faith and inspire action.

Men's Class - led by the group

The Men's Bible Study has just begun a new book, "Minor Prophets, Part 1" so now is a great time to join! The men's class runs all year.

The men of the class informally take turns leading discussion each week. Floyd Ritchie shares that they're really enjoying this new study, since the minor prophets are lesser-known scripture for many people.

Adult Conversation Class

The adult conversation class is a more informal gathering, centered on weekly conversation topics. This class uses the ELCA's weekly Faith Lens study to launch conversation each week, connecting the day's scripture readings with current events.

With a new topic each week, this class is great for those who aren't here each Sunday - it's easy to jump right into the conversation. That said, we'd love to see you each Sunday for a new conversation!
