(Room 31 - 3rd Floor - Axson Bldg.)

Lives of Old Testament Saints

Emmaus Class

Teacher: Timothy Foster

Room 32 (3rd Floor - Axson Bldg.)

The Book of Judges

This study will present an honest portrayal of Israel's degeneracy and lawlessness. Israel's cycle of depravity—privilege, presumption, punishment and penitence—is told with graphic realism. It was the "Dark Ages" for Israel, a time in the nation's history when "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judges 21:25). Godly leadership was desperately needed. Join us for an in-depth study of this perplexing portrait of heroism, accelerated apostasy, and God's faithfulness.

Agape Class

Teacher: Ron Parrish

Room 70 (2nd Floor - Administration Bldg.)

The Miracles of Jesus

How the Savior's mighty acts serve as signs of redemption. The miracles of Jesus raise many questions. Did they really take place? What is their meaning? How did they happen? Why did they happen? What are we supposed to make of them. How are they relevant to us? This class will seek to give answers to these and other questions.

Garmer Class

Teacher: Ed Forester

Room 30 (3rd Floor - Axson Bldg.)

Acts: The Continuing ministry of the exalted Christ
by the Power of the Holy Spirit

The book of Acts continues the unfolding drama that features the saving acts of God on the stage of history. This study will enrich our understanding and appreciation not only of Acts but also the whole Bible.
