

Independent Presbyterian Summer Quarter Sunday School ~ June - August 2019

College Class

Teacher: Evan Gear

Room 72 (2nd Floor – Administration Bldg.)

Amos

Hidden among the 12 minor prophets, Amos has been described as a message at once “relevant, humbling, and frightening.” Perhaps minor is not the best way to describe it? Certainly it is short in length but, as we hope to see, long and deep in content. Come and study with us as we find in the words of this “herdsman” God’s word to us.

New Covenant Class (post college)

Teacher: Tim Shaw

(4th Floor – Whitaker Bldg.)

The Gospel According to Moses in Exodus

What does all this detail in Moses’ instruction mean? Why is there so much space given to it (Tabernacle, Altar, Priestly Vestments, etc.)? Does it apply to me? What do we do with it? There is much to learn about God and our fellowship with Him in these latter chapters of Exodus. Come and Study and discuss what it means to fellowship with the God of the Tabernacle, the God who has tabernacled among us in Christ Jesus!

Berean Class (30s)

Teacher: Tim Foster

Room 31 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

Inside Out: Engaging Our Emotions Theologically

Human emotions are complex. Winston Churchill wrestled with the “Black Dog” of depression. John Bunyan’s Pilgrim wallowed in the “Slough of Despond.” Charles Spurgeon addressed the Minister’s “Fainting Fits.” How do we process our difficult emotions biblically? What should we do with our anxiety, anger, shame, or disappointment? We will survey the Scriptures to discover how our emotions reveal our deepest held beliefs and how they inform us about our relationship with God.

Emmaus Class (40s)

Teacher: Dennis Boatright

Room 30 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

The Micah Mandate

Micah 6:8 commands the people of God to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with the Lord. This study will seek to provide guidance for balancing these requirements in the Christian life that we might be more faithful to our heavenly Father.

Agape Class (50s)

Teacher: Ron Parrish

New Morning Mercies

God’s mercies are new every morning (Lam. 3:22-23). Using as our discussion guide the devotional book of the same title by Paul Tripp we will take a practical look at how the gospel engages us in our everyday lives. In Tripp’s description, “God’s mercy is radical theology, but it is more than a theology; it is life to all who believe. God’s mercy is ultimate comfort, but it is also a call to a brand-new way of living. God’s mercy really does change everything forever, for all upon whom this mercy is bestowed.”

Garmer Class (60+)

Teacher: Ed Forester

Room 30 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

Romans 1-8

“For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established”— What was the gift Paul is talking about? What does Paul mean by “being established?” Your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. What did Paul know that they still needed? In this study of Romans we will find the answers to these and other questions.
