

What the Heck is ACLPD?

Answers:

1. c. If you got this one wrong, you need to pay more attention to statewide library issues...ACLPD needs your input!
2. False. ACLPD reports to the State Library Board.
3. True. In fact, the full name is the "ACLPD Permanent Resource Sharing Committee". It was organized because so much of library planning and development involves the sharing of resources among libraries.
4. False. Members are appointed for two-year terms by the State Library Board.
5. True. That is the fundamental mission of ACLPD.
6. False. ACLPD has 19 members, including representatives of public libraries, but also members from shared automation systems, CLA, special libraries, academic libraries, libraries serving persons with disabilities, the Connecticut Library Consortium, library users, and the Departments of Education and Higher Education.
7. False. ACLPD seeks to include one library user from each of the six CLSU regions. Librarians are encouraged to nominate users or friends of their libraries.
