COME HEAR THIS PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZER
HELP YOU GET TO THE ROOT OF HOW TO SIMPLIFY YOUR LIFE!

Join us for brunch and an interesting program and learn about all the exciting things coming up for Sisterhood this year. It's the perfect opportunity to learn how you can get involved. Bring a friend...they'll thank you for it!

Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ), of which Sisterhood of Temple B'nai Torah is a member, has a long and proud history of advocacy and engagement on public policy issues. WRJ takes action on the basis of existing resolutions and policy statements adopted by leadership as well as the values of Reform and Progressive Judaism.

As highlighted in the WRJ Advocacy Plan, six high priority social justice issues have been identified for WRJ to focus on as an organization. These issues include:

- Pay Equity
- Violence Against Women
- Reproductive Rights
- Economic Justice and Labor Rights
- Israel and Religious Pluralism
- Immigration and Refugee Reform

Learn more about the plan and how each person can get involved but visiting www.wrj.org/womenact.

Wednesday, August 15th
7:00pm at TBT
Open to all SH members!

Want to learn even more? Save the date for this exciting first time conference!
