What others have to say:

Rev Pat Bessey: I gifted myself time in the silence and the payback was exponential to my spiritual growth.

Pam Mills: The first evening is about settling down and settling in. The next day is going deep...walking the beach, meditation/contemplative prayer. Second day is exploring the mystery of joy/love. I really can't explain how connected I feel with each person in our group, but the shared experience of just "being" is a big part of it.

Jack's Bio: Having been a Jesuit priest for 25 years, I bring a wealth of experience to this process. Over the years, I have guided many people during eight and thirty-day silent retreats. The participants in these retreats were men and women, lay and Religious, and from various spiritual traditions. I have a deep conviction that there are many paths into the Sacred Mystery.

An opportunity to give a love offering will be made available at the end of the retreat.
