

The Arts Offsite and Livestream Poetry News from Executive Director Angela M. Brommel on behalf of the Office of Arts & Culture

Poetry Matters Hits the Road
Wednesday, April 14, 2021

The Office of Arts & Culture and the Blue Sage Writer's Guild invite you to join us for Poetry Matters! on the Flo Mobile Digital Billboard Truck at Nevada State College in front of the Rogers Student Center on April 14, 2021 at 4:00 PM. Clark County Poet Laureate and Nevada State FYE Lecturer, Heather Lang-Cassera, has curated a selection of three- and four-line poems from 25 Nevada poets to tour the Las Vegas valley by Flo Mobile Digital Billboard Truck.

Featured Scorpion poets include Heather Lang-Cassera, Angela M. Brommel, Arika Elizenberry, Liz Galvez, Emily Hoover, Paul Michelsen, Samuel Piccone, and Gregory Robinson.

Cowboy Poetry Workshop and reading with Waddie Mitchell

The City of Henderson invites you to a workshop and reading by Cowboy Poet Waddie Mitchell. Attendance is limited in accordance with current state guidelines, so reserve your seat now.

Waddie Mitchell Workshop Friday, April 16, 2021 at 10:00 AM

Join the Teams meeting here.

Waddie Mitchell Workshop Friday, April 16, 2021 at 2:00 PM

Join the Teams meeting here.

Waddie Mitchell Reading April 17, 2021 7:00 PM at the Water Street Plaza

Watch the live stream from home: <https://www.cityofhenderson.com/Home/Components/Calendar/Event/432/16>

Poets at the Plaza

Thursday, April 15, 2021

Water Street Plaza

RSVP: Reserve your seat: <http://bit.ly/PoetsandArtsTalk>

The Office of Arts & Culture and the Blue Sage Writer's Guild invite you to join us for a night of Poets at the Plaza. Eight of Nevada's most accomplished poets will share their work on the Water Street Plaza. You're also invited to participate in a discussion about the future of #HendersonArts. Join us for a great night of listening! Special Performances by Henderson Youth Artists. Scorpion poets include Angela M. Brommel, Aimee McAfee, Charlie Johnson, and Heather Lang-Cassera.