

SPIRITUAL RELATION & HALLOWED GROUND

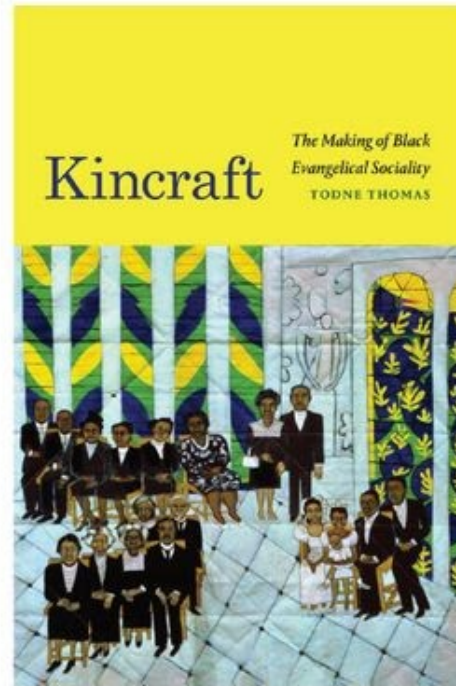

AN EVENING WITH TODNE THOMAS

MONDAY FEBRUARY 17TH, 2025 6PM

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, 20 EAST ST. VRAIN STREET

THE CENTER FOR
THE STUDY OF EVANGELICALISM

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, doors open at 5:30pm

Learn more at center.uccs.edu/cse/

TODNE THOMAS is Associate Professor of Divinity and of Religious Studies at Yale University. Her ethnographic research explores the racial, spatial, & familial dynamics of Black Christian communities to explore intersectional constructions of power and critical forms of consciousness that attend "the sacred."

Author of Kincraft: The Making of Black Evangelical Sociality, Thomas is completing a forthcoming book From Hate to Hallows: Re-framing Black Church Arson

For inquiries contact Ben Slightom, bslighto@uccs.edu

LUCE HENRY
LUCE
FOUNDATION

UCCS
The Center for the Study of Evangelicalism
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
COLORADO SPRINGS