

As with any change, there's the cleaning up of old records, learning new ways, and making new inroads and new friends. All these changes are with the intent of making administration jobs more manageable and at the same time, trying to increase our activity level towards achieving goals of education, environmental sustainability, and attracting new members.

There's a lot going on in Michigan right now. Keep up the good work, fight off the exhaustion, find joy in the achievements. j