Dear Mr. Waddell,

Thank you so much for visiting and speaking to us at The Island School. You inspired us all and we will remember your lesson throughout our lives. You are our hero!

Love,

Thank you for motivating us, for not giving up and being determine, hurt or not. Also you're a great role model and store a great example for us. You are a positive, strong man and I'm very sorry for your accident, even though it pushed you. I wish you can come back, so I could learn more about you.

It's not what happen to you, it's what you do with what happens to you

Decer Mr. Weddell

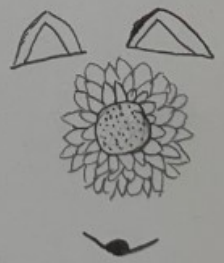

I think its inspiring that you got in accident and you were still abl to follow your dreams. Sometimes, I think I can't be a teacher. (which is my dream job.) But you made me believe I can do it.

Thinks so much.

Dear Mr. Waddell,

Thank you so much for showing me that it doesn't matter if I get hurt, that I can't just quit and just feel sorry for myself no, I've got keep on with my passion. You inspired me, so when I'm older, and if I get hurt, I'm not ever going to give up my passion. I will never forget what you did. You will always be in my memories, I will always remember your motto. I'll never forget you.

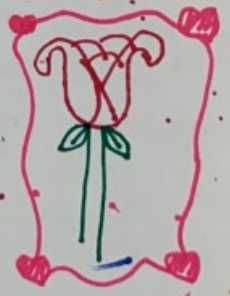

Sensorly,

Dear Mr. Waddell,

Your story really encouraged me to never give up and to never say "I can't do it and I won't do it". I even told my 4 brothers about your story and they told me they were really inspired about your story. And lastly, thank you for your time at my school. You will always be welcomed in my wonderful school.

Sincerely,
Sandy

Dear Mr. Waddell,

I think it's so inspiring that you pursued your dreams even though you had a disability
(I'm sorry if that word upset you I know lots of people don't like being put under that word)
I feel that I can pursue my dreams knowing Because you did yours even though I bet people doubted you. So.... thank you very much
