We Remember in our Prayers...

- ✧ For Zainab and her colleagues in the emergency squad who are on the front lines of this pandemic.
- ✧ For doctors, nurses, hospital staff and administrators, as well as their families. For Mallory, Dr. Franz, Dr. Becky M, Gabrielle, Carolyn, Jeanne, Sarah, Annie, Carol, Nancy,
- ✧ Bless them with stamina as they face tragedy on a daily basis. Bless them with moments of peace and purpose and rest. Bless them as they are often providing emotional support for patients, as well as the medical skills for which they are trained. For self-care as they work overtime and respond to monumental needs.
- ✧ Help them and all of us to process the feelings of guilt in not being able to do more.
- ✧ For Mark, diagnosed with cancer
- ✧ For Gordy, in need of healing
- ✧ For Dave, who died last week, and for his wife Juanita who is grieving
- ✧ For the homeless community, and those caring for them.
- ✧ For Alyssa's brother, Karen's nephew, and others graduating without graduation.
- ✧ For Chatham UMC's graduating seniors, Miriam, Anna, Emma and Hanna
- ✧ For Jon working on the front lines in a supermarket
- ✧ For staff working in Intensive Care Units which at times extend to the hallways of hospitals.
- ✧ For Anne, in need of God's healing touch.
- ✧ For the Communities of Care calls, that they continue to be a mutual blessing for those receiving and making calls.
- ✧ For the health and safety of all first responders, all health care workers, and all chaplains and clergy as they minister to the needs of our population.
- ✧ For Ron as he goes through the next rounds of chemo
- ✧ For Mary in need of God's blessing, and her family as they care for her
- ✧ For those with the power to make decisions that will help the world confront this pandemic with wisdom, knowledge and compassion
- ✧ For Christians, people of other faiths, and people of good will, that together we will offer compassion, love and wisdom to a fearful and hurting world.
