SassyCyclist started with a very simple idea - make a stylish, better fitting and truly comfortable cycling jersey that women would love to wear. A group of female cyclists pondered, "Wouldn't it be nice to buy a jersey truly true to size? That featured 3M Scotchlite™ reflective material for higher visibility? That stayed put and didn't ride up and was quick-dry and antimicrobial? That was stylish on and off the bike?" And so, SassyCyclist apparel was born.
