Addressing Pharmacy Deserts One Store at a Time

Own an Oasis in a Pharmacy Desert

McKesson wants to team up with a licensed pharmacist to help them establish their own pharmacy in an underserved community, providing access and changing health outcomes for at-risk populations.

A Ready to Occupy Pharmacy

To combat the problem of pharmacy deserts, McKesson is looking for a pharmacist to take ownership of a pharmacy designed to serve a community in Cincinnati, Ohio. Inner city pharmacies frequently have limited hours, limited consultations, and few added services like vaccines, screenings, resources and programs. With all the required funding and subject matter consulting from McKesson, we believe a pharmacist can succeed both as a business, and a cornerstone of the neighborhood.

Are You the Right Person?

Have you always dreamed of owning your own pharmacy? Are you an active member of the community who wants to better the lives of those in need? Do you have an entrepreneurial spirit? If so, you may be who we are looking for! We want the person we choose to have pharmacy experience, business acumen, connections to the community, adaptability, creativity, and a knowledge of clinical program diversity development. We can't wait to have you build a pharmacy oasis.
