Mr. Evans is a highly accomplished senior-level healthcare executive and corporate officer with a diverse background, and both CEO and COO experience gained in hospitals and health systems of various sizes and complexity. He also has gained in-depth knowledge of the healthcare industry through regional trade association, physician practice and consulting engagements. As a CEO, he led a successful hospital turnaround by focusing on operational efficiency, revenue enhancement and cultural transformation. While COO of a two-hospital system, Mr. Evans was instrumental in integrating the hospitals and forging a common culture and shared vision. As an entrepreneur, he formed his own consulting company, Trinity Healthcare Solutions, LLC, in 2014 to help hospitals improve their bottom lines through operational and revenue cycle assessments. Prior to becoming an owner and Managing Principal of Revenue Cycle Solutions, LLC, in 2017, he served as the company's COO from 2009 to 2011 and has broad knowledge of all aspects of the revenue cycle and hospital operations. Mr. Evans also teaches strategic planning and marketing at the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public Health. He has an undergraduate degree from Brown University and a Master's in Public Health (MPH) degree from the University of Pittsburgh.
