

Tyler is the Director of Advisory Services located in the Hermitage, Pennsylvania office of HBK. He specializes in internal audit, business controls, SOX Controls, control implementation and transformation, forensics and fraud, operational audits, and consulting engagements. Tyler has direct experience in leading organizations through outsourced/co-sourced CFO and COO positions. Tyler is able to advise and work on HITRUST assessments for HITRUST compliance. He has experience working in a wide range of client industries including manufacturing, health care, pharmaceuticals, automotive, higher education, food and business services, banking, real estate, oil and gas, and financial services.

Additionally, Tyler serves on the advisory board for the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE).