

Responding to Maine's Opioid Crisis

Education, Compassion and Community

The Maine addiction crisis affects us all, directly or indirectly. To respond effectively, we are all called upon, in community, to become well-educated about this subject and approach the challenge from a place of compassion.

Sunday, March 24, 4-6PM

“Paths that Created It, Paths that Heal”

Guest Speakers: Robert Fowler, Exec. Dir, Milestone Recovery

John Kilbride, Falmouth Chief of Police

Sarah Coupe, Founder, Grace House for Women and President, Maine Association of Recovery Residences

Presentations, Personal Testimony, Q and A

The Episcopal Church of Saint Mary Auditorium

43 Foreside Road, Falmouth

This is the first in a series of presentations providing persons of every age with the opportunity to learn about:

- ◆ Sources and causes of the crisis
- ◆ The physical consequences of addiction
- ◆ Identifying signs of addiction,
- ◆ Responding to an addiction concern
- ◆ Reaching out for long term recovery assistance
- ◆ Reaching out to help those directly affected
