

“Keeping Hope Alive: Palestinian Solidarity Despite 50 Years of Occupation”

An Evening with George Rishmawi, Christian Palestinian activist

Member of a Palestinian family long engaged in non-violent resistance to Israeli occupation, George Rishmawi directs both the Siraj Center for Holy Land Studies and Masar Ibrahim, a program which brings people from all faiths and nations to walk the Abraham Path to learn Abrahamic values and traditions. Co-founder of the International Solidarity Movement and active in many local and international organizations, George is committed to justice for Palestine and works to build a sense of hope and purpose for the future in the midst of ongoing oppression.

August 7, 7 p.m., Blue Hill Public Library
August 8, 7 p.m., Grace Episcopal Church, Bath

Sponsors include Episcopal Peace Fellowship, Maine Chapter; Maine Episcopal Network for Justice; Holy Land Pilgrims of the Episcopal Diocese of Maine, and Americans Who Tell the Truth. For more information, call Maurine Tobin, 207-348-9976.