

Celtic Music Concert

The St. Alban's Eventide Ensemble

An early wintry evening of joy and delight

December 5th at 7 PM

Concert & Reception

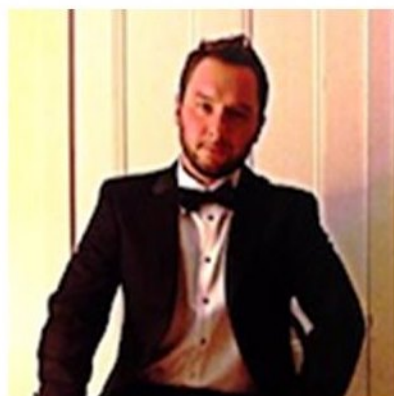

A bright and moving Celtic music experience

Kids Free, Students $10. Adults $20.

Michael Albert, a brilliant oboe soloist, gifted on the violin and viola and pipe. Mike is an ambidextrous member of the ensemble. He has performed with leading New England orchestras and colleges as USM in oboe and voice. .

Meagan McIntyre, a stellar violinist who performs throughout Maine and with the Amarantos String Quartet. A faculty member at the Portland Conservatory of Music, Meagan was educated at the New England Conservatory.

Shannon Allen, USM Music grad and gifted cellist, brings his instrument to life with color, depth and joy. A consummate musician, he embodies the works he performs and shines in the Celtic Eventide ensemble.

Nicole Rabata, gifted flutist is well known for her virtuosity in classical Celtic and Brazilian genres. Nicole has performed internationally and is on the faculty of Colby College and the University of Maine. Educated at the Royal Northern College of Music in England.

Tom Kovacevic, talented on the key board and guitar has had a long career in music performance from Celtic to Reggae to Middle Eastern and Sacred Music. A choir leader and composer, Tom has long been part of St. Alban's musical life.

All proceeds to support the missions and ministries of
St. Alban's Episcopal Church
885 Shore Road, Cape Elizabeth, ME

The Spirit of Music... Concerts for the Community... Get your tickets!

Tickets available at www.brownpaper.com or email events@stalbanmaine.org