Following in Celtic Footsteps

In Celtic spirituality many are finding the interconnectedness of God they are seeking. So come and join us in September 2017, on a pilgrimage to explore the history and experience the landscapes that formed this unique spiritual tradition. Celtic Christianity flourished in Britain from the arrival of Columba on the Island of Iona around 563, through heroic missionary work across modern-day Scotland and northern England, until the Synod of Whitby by 664. Our pilgrimage will follow in the footsteps of many of these Celtic saints.

After flying into Glasgow, our journey will begin with three nights on the island of Iona, to allow us to experience the extraordinary atmosphere which cultivated the work of Columba and his fellow monks. We will then follow the path of saint Aidan across Scotland, stopping for an overnight in Dunfermline, and on to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne where we will spend two nights within steps of where the beautiful Lindisfarne Gospels were illumined in the 7th century. From there we will continue on to the magnificent cathedral city of Durham, which will serve as our home base for the remainder of the trip.

While in Durham, besides enjoying the vast Norman cathedral, built to be the final resting place and shrine of Cuthbert (the most beloved of the Northumbrian Celtic saints), we will visit Jarrow (home of the Venerable Bede, without whose history these saints would be unknown), Hexham (home of the missionary saint Wilfrid, who worked hard to see unification between the Celtic and the Roman Christians of this era), and Whitby, where Hild presided over a remarkable 'double monastery' of men and women.

This rich part of our spiritual heritage has long been an interest for each of us and has deeply influenced our ministries. We look forward to sharing our years of study and passion for Celtic spirituality with you. Additionally in many of our stops we will have the added benefit of local experts and guides adding even more depth to our journey.

So come and join us: Following in the Footsteps of the Celtic Saints!

Accommodation on Iona is strictly limited, and the hotel at which we will stay is not large. Places on this pilgrimage are available on a 'first come, first served' basis, and you are encouraged to mail your booking form and deposit as soon as possible. Final deadline for registration for the pilgrimage is 14th February 2017. You are advised to book before this date to be sure of securing your place.

OUR ITINERARY

Day 1, Thursday 7th September

We fly from Seattle or Boston to New York's JFK Airport, where we change planes and board our late-night flight to Glasgow.

Day 2, Friday 8th September

Land at Glasgow late morning, we travel by coach to Oban on the west coast of Scotland. From here we catch the ferry to the island of Mull, and after another hour's drive, we come to small harbor at Fionnphort to board the passenger ferry across to the Holy Island of Iona. Our hotel is a short walk from where the ferry docks, and we will arrive in the early evening.

Days 3 and 4, Saturday and Sunday 9th and 10th September

Two quiet days to enjoy the peace and tranquility of this special island. There will be time to take part in a walking pilgrimage of the island, to worship with the Abbey community, and learn more about the history of the island and the mission of its saints, past and present.

Iona

The prestige of Iona began in AD 563 when the Celtic bishop Columba and his twelve companions sailed from Ireland to found a monastery here and used it as a base from which to convert the Picts to Christianity. The monastery was attacked and burned six times by Vikings and was eventually abandoned as the monks withdrew to the safety of monasteries such as Kells in Ireland.

Iona was occupied again in 1203 as a Benedictine monastery, but it fell into ruin after the dissolution of the monasteries by Henry VIII in the 1530s .

The oldest surviving building is St Oran's chapel (c. 1080), and the ornately carved St Martin's Cross (10th century) stands outside the abbey.

Today Iona is a sacred place visited by thousands of pilgrims every year.

Day 5, Monday 11th September

We leave Iona after breakfast, and on reaching the Scottish mainland after our two ferry journeys, we make for the former royal capital of Scotland, Dunfermline, to remember the life of the saint-queen Margaret, and the ties between this city and the United States of America.

Day 6, Tuesday 12th September

After a morning in Dunfermline, we leave for the Borders town of Melrose, to visit the ruins of the medieval abbey built close by the original Celtic foundation, where Aidan and Cuthbert once lived. After lunch, we head east towards the holy island of Lindisfarne, to be our base for the next two nights.

Day 7, Wednesday 13th September

We have a whole day on Lindisfarne for a time of prayer and discovery, with the opportunity of visiting the priory ruins and the delightful stately home of Lindisfarne Castle.

Day 8, Thursday 14th September

After an early lunch, we leave Lindisfarne to drive south, stopping at St Paul's Church at Jarrow, the sometime home of the Venerable Bede. From here we continue south to Durham City, for the final four nights of our pilgrimage.

Day 9, Friday 15th September

Today we drive south from Durham to visit the coastal town of Whitby, and the ruins of its ancient abbey. It was here that Hild once presided over a 'double monastery' (ie women and men), and which was the setting for the Synod that settled the ecclesiastical debate about whether the English church should follow Roman or Celtic practices. After a break for lunch, we visit the beautiful abbey ruins at Rievaulx, before returning to Durham.

Day 10, Saturday 16th September

Today we drive south to the cathedral cities of Ripon (where St Wilfrid once ministered) and then York, to enjoy the medieval splendor of these great buildings, and learn a little of their history.

Day 11, Sunday 17th September

This morning we will enjoy worship in Durham Cathedral, and then have our final afternoon free to enjoy the chance of last-minute shopping, or simply to wander around Durham's river banks and have a time of reflection and calm before our journey home.

Day 12, Monday 18th September

After breakfast, we leave for Edinburgh airport, and our flight to JFK and then onwards to our homes.

Please note this complex touring programme may be subject to minor local amendments

Any flight scheduled or otherwise forming part of the arrangements will be subject to the Conditions of Carriage of that airline. CHANGES WE MAKE AND FLEXIBILITY

We plan our trips many months and sometimes years in advance. Sometimes, although not often, we have to change or cancel portions of the itinerary, lodging and other details of a trip. As such, we cannot guarantee that every part of the itinerary advertised in the brochure will be followed or that the duration of each visit along the route will be as advised. While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing changes when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or
- c. Cancel your tour. If in these particular circumstances you cancel, all monies paid to us will be refund to you less any non-refundable deposits.

In the event that the significant change is our cancellation of the tour, we will return to you all money that you have paid us or will offer you an alternative available tour to purchase of comparable standard.

CHANGE REQUESTS THAT YOU MAKE

To change your booking, you must submit your request to us in writing by email at info@lightlinena.com with "Change Request" in the subject line or postal mail at Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, 1829 North Cleveland Ave, Unit B, Chicago, IL 60614 USA. If you request to change your tour dates or alter your itinerary after we confirm your booking, we will do our best to accommodate your request. If we are able to make such changes, a change fee will be imposed. The type and scope of change dictates the amount of the change fee. Our outside suppliers, including hotels, often impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. These are included in the change fee and can be substantial.

We will forward any alteration that you request after your tour has commenced to our independent suppliers. We will Work with our suppliers to try and accommodate reasonable requests but cannot guarantee that any changes will be possible after your tour has commenced. FORCE MAJEURE

Lightline Pilgrimages will not be deemed in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to you, by reason of delay in performance or nonperformance of any of its obligations under this agreement to the extent that any such delay or nonperformance is due to any Force Majeure. If we and any of our suppliers are affected by Force Majeure, we and our suppliers shall be entitled to, and may in our sole discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the tour. Regarding civil unrest, once we have investigated the prevailing situation, as we deem fit, it shall remain in our sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the tour.

TRIP PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

The prices quoted for these tours are based on known costs and exchange rates when tours are planned. We reserve the right to levy a surcharge in the event of any material variation in such costs and rates such as transportation costs and fuel; dues, taxes or fees; or exchange rates applied to particular purchases. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the tour price (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges). Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 10% of the tour price, you will be entitled to cancel the tour with a full refund of all monies paid. Should you decide to cancel because of this, you must do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice that contains the surcharge, otherwise your cancellation will be subject to our cancellation policy and fees.

Since we have to absorb increased costs equivalent to 2% of the tour price, there will be no reduction in the price of the tour in the event of a favorable variation in costs or exchange rates. Prices will not be increased within 14 days of departure.

LOST/DAMAGED LUGGAGE

You are responsible for your baggage and personal effects throughout the tour. It is important that you keep track of your belongings while traveling just as you would at home. All costs incurred for lost, misplaced, damaged or delayed baggage are at the owner's expense. Any valuable items should be insured accordingly.

NO REFUNDS FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES

You will not be reimbursed for any personal expenses such as airfare, hotel or other travel expenses due to changes in itineraries or tour cancellations.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint during your tour, you must promptly report it to either your tour leader or our local representative, so that action can be taken to remedy the problem. Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit and potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date. Any complaints received after this date will not be accepted.

You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary travel documents are valid and effective and in your possession for the entire tour. Passports are required for all citizens traveling abroad and should be valid for at least seven (7) months after your date of return. It is important that the first name and surname on the air ticket matches those on the passport, otherwise the passenger may not be able to travel and any applicable travel insurance may be ineffective. We suggest you apply for or renew a passport early. Other required documents may include visas, permits, and vaccination certificates. You assume complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements. You are also solely responsible for any adverse consequences resulting from incomplete or defective documentation.

Holders of passports other than U.S., British or Irish should contact Lightline Pilgrimages for advice on whether or not a Visa is required. Other nationals should ensure they comply with formalities.

U.S. citizens may register for the U.S. government's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, a free service, at <https://step.state.gov/step/>.

While we may provide information or advice on matters such as visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, and special equipment in good faith as a courtesy to you, we are not responsible for any errors or omissions as to the information provided.

TRAVEL INSURANCE/PROTECTION

The tour price does not include travel insurance. All Participants are required to have medical insurance to cover any medical problems that might rise abroad, including serious illness and repatriation costs in the event of death. We strongly recommend that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance, covering trip interruption and cancellation, baggage and other expenses which might arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience occurring to you.

PRE-DEPARTURE DOCUMENTATION

It is important that you carefully read all trip-related documents that you receive from us as soon as you receive them. It is your responsibility to contact us if any information is incorrect. We cannot accept any liability if you do not notify us of any inaccuracies within seven (7) days of receipt. All Participants must sign this agreement and our release and waiver of liability and assumption of risk and indemnity agreement in order to participate in our trips. Both parents and/or the legal guardian must sign for minor Participants under 18 years of age. If you fail to submit these and other necessary documentation prior to departure, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you and impose the cancellation fees described in this agreement.
