Congregation: St. Ann's, Windham

Dick is a member of Diocesan Council, the diocesan Finance committee, and the Strategic Mission Support committee. He also works with the Bishop, the various Canons of the diocese and congregations in the diocese pertaining to budgeting and other financial matters. Dick has been the lay representative to Provincial Synod and was the chair of Maine's deputation to the 2013 General Convention. He was a member of the 2018 deputation to General Convention.

Dick has been an active participant in the development of the process for congregations that receive strategic mission support from the diocese. Clerical Nominee: The Rev. Maria Hoecker

Congregation: St. Columba's, Boothbay Harbor

Nominated by: Patty Colhoun

Biography: The Rev. Maria J. Hoecker has served as Rector of St. Columba's Episcopal Church in Boothbay Harbor since 2012. A native of Kansas, Rev. Hoecker received her MDiv from the School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee, TN. In 2008 she completed the innovative two year Clergy Leadership Project training program funded by Trinity-Wall Street which brought together a cohort of 30 Episcopal clergy from all over the country to study Adaptive Challenge leadership.

Rev. Hoecker is currently serving her second year as President of the Standing Committee for the Episcopal Diocese of Maine, working with Bishop Stephen Lane as chair of his Council of Advice. As president, she is shepherding the various diocesan committees and diocesan staff through the two-year process of electing Maine's next bishop in 2019. She is also a founding member of the steering committee for the Maine Episcopal Network for Justice and was an alternate clergy deputy to the 79th General Convention of The Episcopal Church in Austin, TX. Most recently she represented the Diocese of Maine at the TENS stewardship conference in Rochester NY.

Rev. Hoecker was called to St. Columba's Church in November 2011 as vicar when it was still a mission congregation. Quickly thereafter, St. Columba's mission grew into a fully recognized parish of the Boothbay Region in the Diocese of Maine.

In the summer of 2017, Rev. Hoecker embarked on a four-month study sabbatical fully funded by the Lilly Foundation. Rev. Hoecker traveled to Westminster, Canterbury, Salisbury-Sarum College, Lindisfarne, Durham, Edinburgh, and the Isle of Iona for sabbatical studies in Celtic Christian Spirituality with noted Celtic theologian John Philip Newell.

Widowed since 2005, Maria+ has balanced her vocation with raising two children, Chloe, a senior at the University of Maine at Farmington and Max, a freshman at the Rochester Institute of Technology. For fun, she is an avid gardener of perennials, writer, and a photographer. Hoecker also works closely with the congregation of All Saints by-the-Sea Chapel on Southport Island on joint outreach ministries and innovative Celtic worship; volunteers as a board member and chair of the governance committee for the Boothbay Region Community Resource Council; and serves as an advocate for numerous ecumenical community initiatives.

THE STANDING COMMITTEE (CON'T)

Lay Nominee: Ms Brenda Hamilton

Congregation: St. Andrew's, Newcastle

Nominated by: Ms Brenda Hamilton

Biography: Brenda Hamilton has served God in the Diocese of Maine and the wider Episcopal Church in a variety of roles over the past 23 years. She was on Diocesan Council for several years and helped in the original development of New Initiatives Grants as a way of funding new ministry ideas. She was a lay member of the Standing Committee for 3 years during Bishop Knudsen's tenure, including a year as Standing Committee President and a member of the Transition Committee during the search that led us to Bishop Lane. She has just finished a 3-year term as Secretary for the Standing Committee and helped to organize the early process of our quest for the 10th Bishop of Maine.

She is committed to the idea that historical knowledge and continuity are helpful to organizations like the Diocese, but that we certainly don't want to "do things the way we have always done them." Her primary goal in exercising church leadership now is to foster new leaders for a new generation of God's people. If elected, she hopes to apply those principles to support Bishop Lane to the end of his tenure and the beginning of a new ministry with Bishop 10.

As a 4-time Deputy to the General Convention, Brenda has been given the opportunity to work closely with many Bishops, other clergy and laity from across the spectrum of the Episcopal Church. Through this, she has developed a keen understanding of the role of Bishops as they serve the whole church and not just one diocese. She feels this is an important perspective that she brings to the work of the Standing Committee, as it serves both as Council of Advice for the Bishop and would serve as the Episcopal Authority in the absence of the Bishop were he/she unable to serve.

Brenda plans to attend the Missional Voices conference in New Orleans in June 2019 and is both curious and enthusiastic about discovering what fresh iterations of "being church" are emerging throughout the Episcopal Church. Though her passion for social justice and public policy are undimmed, she is enjoying a midlife transition to a quieter spiritual journey that is less focused on activism and more centered in daily prayer and a wide range of spiritual practices. Brenda is a home health and hospice social worker by profession and lives in Waldoboro with her wife of 29 years, Sherri Dietrich.

Brenda brings to the position:

- 1) Prior experience on Standing Committee and Bishop Transition
- 2) Experience and perspective that spans parochial, diocesan and church-wide ministry
- 3) Thoughtful, decisive, strong opinions but open to the ideas and perspectives of others
- 4) Good skills in taking minutes and willing to continue to serve as Secretary if elected.
- 5) Love of the Diocese of Maine and many years of service in a variety of roles.
- 6) Curiosity and openness to new ideas of what it means to be a church community.

THE STANDING COMMITTEE (CON'T)

Lay Nominee: Ms Carla Kelley

Congregation: St. Martin's, Palmyra

Nominated by: The Rev. Laura Peckham

Biography: Carla is a member of St. Martin's in Palmyra where she is currently serving on Vestry as the treasurer. She is a mother of three and grandmother of five, and enjoys needlework and quilting, often donating her quilts to local charities for auction/fundraising purposes. Carla is a 23 year veteran of Maine based Cianbro Corporation where she is a Project Manager and business analyst for the operations teams. She holds seven project management, financial, and human resource certifications. She is a point of contact for planning, scheduling, risk management, contract integration and project costs to accurately predict project completion. She actively promotes communication, early problem identification, efficient problem resolution, and process improvements. Through her job Carla often travels and works on projects across the country while remaining an active member in her local community serving on the school board of SAD#53 and volunteering for various charities. As a 12 year member of St. Martin's, Carla knows well the joys and struggles of small parish life. Carla has a keen mind to ask the important questions that help a committee thoughtfully delve into a matter and she brings along with this a pastoral heart and concern for everyone involved in and affected by a decision.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL

NEED TO ELECT: Lay representatives in each of eight diocesan areas (two-year term)

Area 1 (Aroostook County)

Ms Nancy Mooers, Church of the Good Shepherd, Houlton

Having served 1 term on this Council I have an understanding of its work. I am a cradle Episcopalian who has been active on The Church of the Good Shepherd altar guild and Vestry as well as serving as a lay leader and server.

Area 2 (Washington and Hancock Counties)

(No nominations submitted)

Area 3 (Piscataquis and Penobscot Counties)

(No nominations submitted)

Area 4 (Oxford, Franklin, and Androscoggin Counties)

Mr. Peter Bickford, Christ Church, Norway

Peter brings many years experience in the Diocese of Maine and the wider church, but remains open to a new way of being church. In the coming time of episcopal transition, he will bring a knowledge of how things have been done here in the past while remaining open to new ideas and new approaches for the church of tomorrow.

Area 5 (Kennebec and Somerset Counties)

Mr. Thomas Ward, St. Andrew's, Winthrop

I have served one term on Diocesan Council as the Lay Representative for Area 5 and have some sense that I have gradually been getting up to speed on the business of the Diocese. There is so much to learn, about canons, customs, diocesan history, personalities and positions. I also now serve on the Diocesan Finance Committee. My serving another term might be useful during the coming season of transition and change from the blessed episcopacy of Bishop Lane to the fresh start of his successor. But while I am willing to continue serving on Council, I would also be happy to step aside should another lay person feel moved by the Holy Spirit to serve as Area 5 Representative. Gabe Kapler - onetime Red Sox outfielder, current Phillies manager, and all all-around mensch - taught me the old Yiddish saying, "Mann tracht, und Gott lacht" (Man plans, and God laughs). That's the story of my walking with God: Plans change, and often for the better.

Area 6 (Sagadahoc, Lincoln, Knox, and Waldo Counties)

Mr. Steve Ward, St. Andrew's, Newcastle

As a resident of the Mid-Coast since 1972, I am very familiar with the slow evolution of this area from chicken farming and woods work to a retirement destination for former professionals. I have been active at St. Andrew's in outreach work for many years (Food Pantry, homelessness counseling, warming center) and also serve as the volunteer co-chair of the energy efficiency task force of the Maine Climate Table - a role that puts me in contact with Mainers of all ages. I am on the Living Local Joining God Team at St. Andrew's and served on the last Search Committee for a new Rector. I love to sing and currently sing with a Hospice Choir at bedsides of hospice patients, upon request. I retired from a State government in 2007 where I served as Public Advocate for twenty-one years.

My primary interests are in connecting local resources to local needs in our neighborhoods and in finding ways of addressing climate change for the benefit of grand-children (of whom I have four) and all of Creation. Perseverance is everything!

Area 7 (Cumberland County)

Ms Kimberley Wallace, St. Ann's, Windham

As a current member of Diocesan Council, I have been the advocate for several New Initiative Grants, served on committees, and actively participated in Diocesan Council meetings. At St. Ann's I am currently the youth group coordinator and a member of the Evangelism Team. We are currently exploring new ways we can be Jesus out in our community through several new initiatives. I have many years of experience working with youth and young adults at St. Ann's and throughout the Diocese. I have been involved with Christian Formation in a variety of ways and with several congregations. I hope to continue to be a part of Diocesan Council and continue the work of the Diocese in the many communities through the State of Maine.

Area 8 (York)

(No nominations submitted)
