

Gather with Bishop Stephen T. Lane
Interfaith Prayer Vigil for a Moral Budget

Wednesday, February 22, 2017

11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Hall of Flags, State House, Augusta

All are welcome!

Mainers of all faiths are invited to gather for prayer while the Joint Committee on Appropriations holds hearings on the Governor's proposed budget cuts to programs affecting vulnerable Mainers.

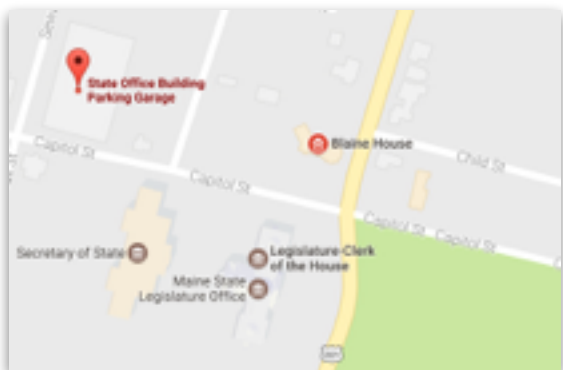

Prayers leaders will represent faith communities from across the state.

Let us stand together as people of faith on behalf of our neighbors, recognizing that

- budgets are moral documents with real-life implications
- there is power in a prayerful presence

Free Parking at 86 Sewell St.

State Office Building Parking Garage

Hosted by

in partnership with Maine Equal
Justice Partners