

Wednesday, October 25 6:30pm

at TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
580 Forest Avenue, in Portland

Linda Orsi Robinson

Linda Robinson is a nurse-midwife whose international work has taken her to Malawi, Africa as a Peace Corps volunteer; to American Samoa where she started the first midwifery practice; and to the Democratic Republic of Congo with Doctors Without Borders.

Robinson is the author of

"Sunday Morning, Shamwana; A Midwife's Letters from the Field," and she's the mother of five children. Linda Orsi Robinson practices nurse/midwifery in Bar Harbor, Maine.

The BUTTERFIELD MEMORIAL SERIES, now in its 7th year of providing these free presentations at Trinity Church, seeks to bring compelling speakers to Portland to share their extraordinary life stories. We welcome LINDA ORSI ROBINSON and look forward to a variety of tales from her work in Africa.

A RECEPTION will follow where books will be available for purchase and autographs. Don't miss this evening with a Maine-based nurse with a wealth of unique stories to share.

This event is FREE to the public.

Free-will donations are always gratefully received and are used to help perpetuate the Butterfield Series.

Seating is limited and there are NO RESERVED SEATS.
