

My soul
is all but out of me, let fall
No burning leaf; prithee,
let no bird call.

World Too Beautiful

A healing service focused on the power of nature and our place in God's created order

Offered by St. Luke's Cathedral

5:45–7:00 p.m.

First & Third Wednesdays

Beginning October 2019

Emmanuel Chapel • 143 State Street

We hope to draw in a broad community to this contemplative service emphasizing environmental and community values such as the beauty of creation, the interconnection of all beings, and the need for harmony, encouragement and healing. The services will draw inspiration from diverse Christian traditions as we welcome people of all ages and nationalities to share in reflection, readings, music and prayer. There will be a gathering afterward for refreshments, fellowship and productive conversations.

ST. LUKE'S CATHEDRAL

143 State Street • Portland, Maine 04101 • (207) 772-5434
www.stlukesportland.org • office@cathedralofstluke.org

FMI: marbypayson@gmail.com • ecparsons33@hotmail.com

My soul
is all but out of me, let fall
No burning leaf; prithee,
let no bird call.

God's World

O world, I cannot hold thee close enough!
Thy winds, thy wide grey skies!
Thy mists, that roll and rise!
Thy woods, this autumn day, that ache and sag
And all but cry with colour! That gaunt crag
To crush! To lift the lean of that black bluff!
World, World, I cannot get thee close enough!

Long have I known a glory in it all,
But never knew I this;
Here such a passion is
As stretcheth me apart,—Lord, I do fear
Thou'st made the world too beautiful this year;
My soul is all but out of me,—let fall
No burning leaf; prithee, let no bird call.

• Edna St. Vincent Millay

The World Too Beautiful services will draw inspiration from diverse Christian traditions for this contemplative service honoring environmental and community values such as the beauty of creation, the interconnection of all beings, and the need for harmony, encouragement and healing.

All Are Welcome!