FENCELINE GATHERING*

Framed Giclée Canvas 2019-2020 PF Print of the Year – Size: 42" x 30"

By Scot Storm

Scot Storm is one of the leading wildlife artists in the country and has won multiple stamp design competitions, including having his work grace the 2019-2020 Federal Duck Stamp. Scott is a longtime Pheasants Forever supporter and "Fenceline Gathering" pays homage to "The Habitat Organization" with its depiction of healthy habitat creating abundant wildlife. This brilliantly detailed painting reminds us that as evasive as tricky old roosters are, so is the challenge of putting more upland habitat back on the landscape. Pheasants Forever promises to keep up the fight for the uplands, so let this piece stand as a beautiful reminder that we need you – in every way – to help accomplish our mission of upland habitat conservation. This limited-edition Print of the Year is a framed 42" x 30" Giclee Canvas and is personally signed and numbered 1-500.

PEACEFUL EVENING FRAMED CICLEE CANVAS

An early winter snow has covered the ground, but melted as it fell into the still open lake. The cabin owners have shoveled their walk and driveway and no longer use the warm weather balcony. The pheasants unlike their neighbors, require neither path nor amenities to live on the land and meet their elemental needs.
