

Anthony J. Buividas, healthcare executive consulting

Anthony advises healthcare executives, drawing on a wealth of experience overseeing major operations. As interim CEO at LIFE-UPENN, he turned around the financial performance of a $42 million health plan, and as senior vice president of health services at Capital Blue Cross, he launched the region's first Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs) and managed a $3 billion health plan.

