

Meet the People Leading the 2018 Campaign

This time of year the Resource Development Team is busy getting ready for the next campaign. One of the most important things they do is make sure the folks who will be leading the charge – the Campaign Cabinet – are onboard and ready to go.

The Campaign Cabinet volunteers are senior business people and community leaders who generously donate their time to ensure United Way's fundraising stays close to the heartbeat of the community they know and love so well.

This year we have another great team, including many long-time, loyal supporters, and a few new recruits who undoubtedly will bring some new perspectives and ideas to keep things fresh. We are pleased to welcome Eric Colberg, BDO, Kristin Korhonen, BMO, Andrew Kalenchuk, NOVA and Kelly Treleaven, RBC.

To the new members, welcome, and to our loyal repeaters, a sincere thank you for continuing to care.

Thanks also are due to our retiring Cabinet members for their support: Tom Terrill, CIBC, Russ Reil, Scotiabank, Tim Pell, Stealth Electric and Rob Clarke. We'll miss you all, and please know, you're welcome back anytime!
